Supreme Court
Throws Out Suit Against HCUA

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court threw out today a suit challenging the constitutionality of the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

Dr. Jeremiah Stamler, Chicago heart specialist, and two others charged the committee's activities stifled freedom of association and criticism of the government.

Their request for a hearing was turned down by a 5-3 vote. Justices Hugo L. Black, William O. Douglas and John M. Harlan said the court should have scheduled oral argument in the case and weigh whether their appeal has merit.

Chief Justice Earl Warren and Justices William J. Brennan Jr., Porter Stewart, Byron R. White and Abe Fortas voted to dismiss the appeal. Justice Thurgood Marshall did not participate in the case.

Charge Hamilton
Man With Murder

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Allen Warford, 26, was charged with first degree murder today in the fatal shooting Saturday of Daniel Walker. Both men are from Hamilton.

Police said the shooting followed an argument between the two men. Walker died early today in Mercy Hospital.

Viet Reds Take Heavy Casualties In Saigon Area

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. ground and air forces killed 155 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese soldiers in three clashes northwest and southwest of Saigon while suffering only five Americans killed and 10 wounded, the U.S. command announced today.

But enemy gunners fired more than 200 rounds of rockets and mortars into five south Vietnamese towns and a dozen allied bases Sunday night. Military spokesmen said 13 Vietnamese soldiers and seven civilians were killed, while the wounded included 25 South Vietnamese troops, 36 civilians and at least 16 American servicemen.

With 187 enemy troops reported killed in clashes Saturday, the weekend saw some of the hardest fighting since the halt in the bombing of North Vietnam on Nov. 1.

Two of the three ground fights centered 70 to 75 miles northwest of Saigon along the Cambodian border where the enemy command reportedly has massed 15,000 to 20,000 troops. The third was in the Mekong Delta 45 miles southwest of Saigon.

Crack American troops from the 1st Air Cavalry Division ran into about 150 North Vietnamese troops at daybreak today a mile from the Cambodian border.

While the American troops pursued them, helicopters spewing rockets and machine-gun fire raked them from the air. Air Force bombers also attacked the enemy positions.

U.S. headquarters said that during the 3½-hour battle, 52 enemy and five Americans were killed and 10 Americans wounded.

On Sunday, in the same area, helicopter gunships on reconnaissance missions spotted an estimated 200 enemy soldiers four miles from the Cambodian border. The gunships attacked the enemy force with machine-gun fire and 2.75-inch rockets for three hours, killing at least 54, headquarters said. There were no American casualties reported.

The action in the delta came Sunday morning when helicopter gunships supporting U.S. 9th Infantry Division troops observed several enemy soldiers.

About 500 infantrymen made an assault into the area, touching off a 3½-hour battle. Headquarters said 49 Viet Cong soldiers were killed. No U.S. casualties were reported.

Unexpected Good News Ends Request For Funds

Community response to the appeal has been overwhelming. Mrs. Knece noted today she didn't know what might lie ahead for her, but she and Steve would have a happy Thanksgiving knowing that so many people cared and that the transplant, so far, has been successful.

CIRCUMSTANCES have become much brighter since the fund was established by friends and classmates following the transplant.

Cost of using an artificial kidney machine, used by Knece, run about $20,000 a year. Young Knece had to be taken to University Hospital twice a week to use the equipment which literally "washed" his blood and kept him alive until his kidney transplant on Nov. 5.

At that time hospital officials reported the operation, plus the surgeon's fees, would run about $40,000. Several days after the operation, as reported in The Herald, Mrs. Knece was informed that the surgeon had waived his fee and placed Steve on a "clinical research" status.

Roy Huffer, administrator of the fund, has received bills totaling about $5,000 for drug and lab fees up to Nov. 2. However, according to Mrs. Knece, Steve will be faced with medical bills of about $200 a month for the massive doses of rejection drugs for a year or (Continued on Page 2)

Commissioners Authorize Sheriff To Hire Consultant

Pickaway County Commissioners today authorized Sheriff Dwight Radcliff to contact a professional jail consultant.

The commissioners have taken the step in the wake of the abortive jail-break attempts and riot that occurred Friday to make the jail more secure.

Commissioners agreed today with Sheriff Radcliff that it is not only necessary to make the needed repairs to the badly damaged second floor, but also to see that such action does not occur again.

Commissioners Wayne Hines, Lloyd Melvin and Charles Morris also dictated a letter of appreciation to be sent to law enforcement agencies that helped bring the prisoner outbreak under control.

THEY instructed the clerk of the board of commissioners, Geneva Brink, to send the letters to the Fayette County Sheriff's Department, the Ross County Sheriff's Department, the Fairfield County Sheriff's Department and to the Police and Fire Departments of Circleville.

The Commissioners today were informed by the State Liquor Department that Kerr's Service Station in Salt Creek Twp. near Laurelville had applied for a liquor license to sell beer and wine for consumption on the premises.

The service station already holds a carryout permit. Thoburn Blaney, county sanitarian, told commissioners he had discussed the Bill Barthelmas landfill site with state officials. They told Blaney that Barthelmas' plans were incomplete and they had told him what should be included in order for the site to get state approval.

Workhorse Plane Of Viet War Develops Wing Cracks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The C130, workhorse aircraft of the Vietnam war, has developed serious wing cracks which will cost the Air Force more than $11 million to repair, Air Force officers report.

The problem has turned up in hundreds of C130s but apparently was detected before it led to any fatal crashes.

The C130 is used as a troop and supply carrier, weather observation craft, a pick-up plane for satellites dropping special reconnaissance photos into the sea, a pilot rescue plane and a gunship.

To keep the busy craft flying, the Air Force has been putting special reinforcing plates on the wings.

But to "insure a long future life" many C130 models must have virtually an entire new wing, the Air Force said.

A new wing section will be installed in approximately 400 C130 models B through E series. Not affected is the C130A, the version which has been converted to the "Puff the Magic Dragon" gunship which can fire thousands of rounds per minute in support of ground troops.

In response to question the Air Force said cracks had been discovered in the C130 wing skin during regular inspection.

Besides the $7.7 million, the Air Force said $3.86 million had been spent on other corrective measures, indicating that each

Fire Fatal To 14 Handicapped Children

BEAUVAIS, France (AP) — Fourteen handicapped children perished today in flames which raged through a home in the village of Froissy, trapping 16 children from 10 to 14 years of age on second floor. The two who escaped death were in serious condition in a hospital.

An employee at the home, where about 40 children are cared for, noticed the flames shortly before noon. Neighbors with fire extinguishers rushed to the scene but they were unable to get through the heat to the second floor.

CLERK of the Pickaway County Commissioners, Geneva Brink, has given a "mini-gavel" to the chairman of the board, Wayne Hines.

Mrs. Brink said the gavel is to be passed on to the next chairman.

Rumor resigned as secretary of Italy's largest party last week. The party council rejected the resignation Sunday night, making him once more the likeliest choice for premier.

Saragat apparently nominated Pertini to give the Christian Democrats and Socialists more time to become reconciled to reunion in a center-left coalition, the only way a majority can be put together in the Chamber of Deputies. This coalition spent five years in power, from 1963 to 1968, but the Socialists bolted after an election setback last May. They are demanding more progressive labor legislation, educational reforms and a greater voice in major government decision as their price for renewal of the alliance.

Pertini was expected to tell Saragat Tuesday or Wednesday whether he has any chance of forming a government and becoming Italy's first postwar premier from outside the Christian Democratic party.

John Corcoran, president of Consolidation Coal Co., Mountaineer's parent firm, sent the rescue teams into the mine "because I still have that ray of hope that these men will be found alive."

Corcoran said the teams could enter because of "conditions stabilizing" in the mine. He noted there had been no explosions since Friday morning and smoke from the mine's portals had diminished considerably.

But at 2 a.m. today, James McCartney, Consolidation public relations counsel, said "no further exploration of the underground areas" is planned "pending further information."

"It is felt that it would be endangering the lives of the mine rescue teams unduly to have them proceed further into the mine than they already have," McCartney said.

FBI agents quoted hospital spokesmen as saying the girl became hysterical while being treated for minor injuries and told nurses that Castile was not her father. Because of difficulty in understanding the girl's statements, the FBI was not called into the case until Sunday.

When the girl was identified, kidnapping charges were filed against Castile in New Orleans and he was placed under arrest.

Agents said the girl would be taken to her parents by the FBI "on the next available flight."

Castile is to be arraigned before a U.S. commissioner in Barstow, Calif., after his release from the hospital. Spokesmen listed his condition as satisfactory, but declined to describe the extent of his injuries.

CHARDON, Ohio (AP)—Geauga County Sheriff's department said today they were trying to trace the identity of the mother of a newborn baby girl whose body was found Saturday.

Deputies said the child's body was found by two hunters at Hamden Orchards, about 10 miles east of Chardon.

"It appeared the mother had deliberately abandoned the child to the elements as soon as it was born," a deputy said.

County coroner Dr. Alton W. Behm ruled Sunday that the child died from exposure.

Rumor Likely New Premier Of Italy

ROME (AP) — Mariano Rumor, with his Christian Democratic party apparently reuniting behind him, appears once more to be in line for Italy's premiership.

Socialist Alessandro Pertini, the premier-designate tapped Sunday by President Giuseppe Saragat, was given little chance to form a government. But Saragat's appointment of the 72-year-old president of the Chamber of Deputies was expected to force the skirmishing Christian Democrats back together and it appeared to be doing that Sunday night.

Rumor resigned as secretary of Italy's largest party last week. The party council rejected the resignation Sunday night, making him once more the likeliest choice for premier.

Hear Nothing From Miners Still Trapped

Listening Device Records Water, Pebble Sounds

MANNINGTON, W. Va. (AP) — The sound of gurgling water and pebbles falling, not voices, was all rescuers heard today in the search for 78 men trapped in a smoldering coal mine for five days.

There's no sign of life at the present time in the hole," said a coal company official, Ralph Hatch, after the first of the night-long testings with a sensitive microphone. The listening device—capable of "picking up" a whisper at 100 feet—was dropped through a drilling hole into one of the mine's passageways 785 feet below the surface.

Two rescue teams also probed into the mine shafts Sunday but found no trace of the men who have been trapped since early Wednesday when explosions thundered through the sprawling Mountaineer Coal Co. No. 9 mine. The other 21 men on the midnight shift either escaped or were pulled to the surface.

The rescue units reported finding evidences of concussion and clear air as one poked 4,500 feet into one shaft, the deepest penetration.

John Corcoran, president of Consolidation Coal Co., Mountaineer's parent firm, sent the rescue teams into the mine "because I still have that ray of hope that these men will be found alive."

Corcoran said the teams could enter because of "conditions stabilizing" in the mine. He noted there had been no explosions since Friday morning and smoke from the mine's portals had diminished considerably.

Auto Crash Brings End To Kidnaping

NEEDLES, Calif. (AP) — A traffic accident provided the break needed for the safe recovery of a 3-year-old New Orleans, La., girl and the arrest of a Fresno man charged with abducting her.

Frank Willis Castile, 39, was arrested Sunday by FBI agents and charged with kidnaping Brenda Ann Maquar, who was taken from a stroller in front of a grocery near her home last Wednesday.

He and the girl had been brought here for hospital treatment Friday after Castile apparently fell asleep at the wheel and his car left Interstate 40 about six miles east of Topock, Ariz., a small community seven miles southeast of here.

FBI agents quoted hospital spokesmen as saying the girl became hysterical while being treated for minor injuries and told nurses that Castile was not her father. Because of difficulty in understanding the girl's statements, the FBI was not called into the case until Sunday.

When the girl was identified, kidnaping charges were filed against Castile in New Orleans and he was placed under arrest.

Non-Devalued Franc Stronger On Markets

Knece Fund Closes

Unexpected Good News Ends Request For Funds

Unexpected good news was received at The Herald today concerning the indebtedness of Stephen Knece and his mother, Mrs. Helen Knece, Route 1, Kingston.

Due to a re-evaluation of coverage by insurance companies, waiving of surgery fees and Steve's "clinical research" status at Ohio State University Hospital, requests for contributions have been terminated.

Knece and his widowed mother were faced with more than $60,000 in medical expenses about three weeks ago. Today, with particular thanks to the generosity of Pickaway and Ross County individuals, church and civic groups, funds are available to pay nearly all of the back medical bills. Community response to the appeal has been overwhelming. Mrs. Knece noted today she didn't know what might lie ahead for her, but she and Steve would have a happy Thanksgiving knowing that so many people cared and that the transplant, so far, has been successful.

CIRCUMSTANCES have become much brighter since the fund was established by friends and classmates following the transplant.

Cost of using an artificial kidney machine, used by Knece, run about $20,000 a year. Young Knece had to be taken to University Hospital twice a week to use the equipment which literally "washed" his blood and kept him alive until his kidney transplant on Nov. 5.

At that time hospital officials reported the operation, plus the surgeon's fees, would run about $40,000. Several days after the operation, as reported in The Herald, Mrs. Knece was informed that the surgeon had waived his fee and placed Steve on a "clinical research" status.

Roy Huffer, administrator of the fund, has received bills totaling about $5,000 for drug and lab fees up to Nov. 2. However, according to Mrs. Knece, Steve will be faced with medical bills of about $200 a month for the massive doses of rejection drugs for a year or (Continued on Page 2)

Speculators Turn Marks Into Dollars

PARIS (AP) — The franc strengthened in Paris today and the government announced new austerity measures. There was a stampede to buy dollars in Germany but other transactions on Europe's markets gave little clue as to whether the world's monetary crisis was over.

Foreign speculators, who had figured on an upward revaluation of the mark, began unloading their huge mark hoardings in Frankfurt and the West German bank sold about $350 million U.S. dollars for marks.

Gold sold briskly in Paris but at a slower rate than last Tuesday before the Paris markets were closed to dampen speculation.

Government leaders and financial experts watched closely for indications of whether President Charles de Gaulle's new austerity program can save the franc from devaluation.

De Gaulle announced over the weekend he would not devalue the franc, declaring that would only reward "odious speculation." The official rate is about five to the dollar.

The official quotation of the franc today was 4.9575-4.96 to the dollar. It reached a level of 4.974 last week, forcing the Bank of France to intervene. Official parity is 4.937.

The franc had apparently been bolstered by De Gaulle's decision to get the economy back in balance, but holders of francs still seemed anxious to shift their money into some other form.

The volume of the Paris gold market was $2.56 million, compared with $4.7 million on last week's final trading day. One kilogram—2.2 pounds—of gold closed at $1,343, up from $1,289 last week. Unofficial trading last week had seen the price of a one-kilogram ingot soar to $1,398.

One of the more surprising results was the rush to the dollar in Germany, where the government announced last week it would not revalue the mark upward.

Within half an hour of the opening in Frankfurt, the West German bank lost about $200 million of the pile of $1.8 billion it bought up in last week's speculative spree.

Dealers in Frankfurt said the rush was due apparently to a desire of speculators to convert their mark holdings back into dollars. The U.S. dollar was at 3.975 to the mark, compared with last week's low of 3.97.

The sharp rise in the dollar pulled other currencies upward, even the franc, but dealers reported few transactions in the French currency.

It was a flight of the franc to the mark and other currencies that brought on the monetary crisis.

Charge 3 In Bombing

BLUEFIELD, W. Va. (AP) — Three Bluefield State College students have been arrested on charges stemming from a bombing incident at the college.

State Police said the three—Edgar James, 26, of Bluefield; Nathaniel B. Johnson, 21, of Crumpler, McDowell County, and William C. Travis of Willow Grove, Pa.—were being held in Mercer County jail in lieu of bonds.

Both Johnson and Travis are under bonds totaling $50,000—$25,000 each for charges of conspiring to inflict damage or injury and possessing explosives with criminal intent. They were arrested today. James, arrested Sunday night, is under $25,000 bond for the same charges. All three are Negroes.

State Police Sgt. R. M. Hall declined to comment as to whether others were being sought in connection with the bombing.

The bombing occurred Thursday night and partially destroyed the college's two-year-old physical education building.

Commissioners Authorize Sheriff To Hire Consultant

Pickaway County Commissioners today authorized Sheriff Dwight Radcliff to contact a professional jail consultant.

The commissioners have taken the step in the wake of the abortive jail-break attempts and riot that occurred Friday to make the jail more secure.

Commissioners agreed today with Sheriff Radcliff that it is not only necessary to make the needed repairs to the badly damaged second floor, but also to see that such action does not occur again.

Commissioners Wayne Hines, Lloyd Melvin and Charles

Morris also dictated a letter of appreciation to be sent to law enforcement agencies that helped bring the prisoner out-break under control.

THEY instructed the clerk of the board of commissioners, Geneva Brink, to send the letters to the Fayette County Sheriff's Department, the Ross County Sheriff's Department, the Fairfield County Sheriff's Department and to the Police and Fire Departments of Circleville.

The Commissioners today were informed by the State

Liquor Department that Kerr's Service Station in Salt Creek Twp. near Laurelville had applied for a liquor license to sell beer and wine for consumption on the premises.

The service station already holds a carryout permit. Thoburn Blaney, county sanitarian, told commissioners he had discussed the Bill Barthelmas landfill site with state officials. They told Blaney that Barthelmas' plans were incomplete and they had told him what should be included in order for the site to get state approval.

Roundtown

IT'S back to school night for parents of Circleville students beginning 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

The parents will get a chance to see how classes are actually conducted at Circleville High School. Teachers will be conducting classes in all areas of the building. Each class session will last approximately 20 minutes.

CLERK of the Pickaway County Commissioners, Geneva Brink, has given a "mini-gavel" to the chairman of the board, Wayne Hines. Mrs. Brink said the gavel is to be passed on to the next chairman.

Fire Fatal To 14 Handicapped Children

BEAUVAIS, France (AP) — Fourteen handicapped children perished today in flames which raged through a home in the village of Froissy, trapping 16 children from 10 to 14 years of age on second floor. The two who escaped death were in serious condition in a hospital.

An employee at the home, where about 40 children are cared for, noticed the flames shortly before noon. Neighbors with fire extinguishers rushed to the scene but they were unable to get through the heat to the second floor.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The C130, workhorse aircraft of the Vietnam war, has developed serious wing cracks which will cost the Air Force more than $11 million to repair, Air Force officers report.

The problem has turned up in hundreds of C130s but apparently was detected before it led to any fatal crashes.

The C130 is used as a troop and supply carrier, weather observation craft, a pick-up plane for satellites dropping special reconnaissance photos into the sea, a pilot rescue plane and a gunship.

To keep the busy craft flying, the Air Force has been putting special reinforcing plates on the wings.

But to "insure a long future life" many C130 models must have virtually an entire new wing, the Air Force said.

A new wing section will be installed in approximately 400 C130 models B through E series.

Not affected is the C130A, the version which has been converted to the "Puff the Magic Dragon" gunship which can fire thousands of rounds per minute in support of ground troops.

In response to question the Air Force said cracks had been discovered in the C130 wing skin during regular inspection.

Besides the $7.7 million, the Air Force said $3.86 million had been spent on other corrective measures, indicating that each C130 fix-up is costing the Air Force around $29,000.

Lockheed has built some 2,000 to 3,000 C130s.

The Air Force apparently does not hold the company responsible.

Officers say the C130 is encountering more "fatigue-damage" than it was designed to cope with, because of the nature of the Vietnam war.

The C130, officers say, makes a lot of brief hops in South Vietnam which mean many landings and takeoffs, usually off short, rough airstrips.

This has accelerated the "metal fatigue," or weakening of the wings.

Commies Kill 10 In Thailand

BANGKOK (AP) — Communist terrorists killed 10 men and wounded two others in an attack on a military training camp in northern Thailand, Premier Thanom Kittikachorn said today.

The premier said the attack occurred last Wednesday. He said the guerrillas shot two sentries and sprayed the camp with automatic weapons fire.

The premier said reinforcements were sent to the area but reported no contact with the guerrillas. They were said to be Meo tribesmen.

Flagrant Welfare Abuses Reported In Massachusetts

BOSTON (AP) — Massachusetts' effort to take full charge of public welfare and straighten out its problems has been shaken by charges that welfare costs are on a runaway track.

A report by the legislative Committee on Public Welfare said "profiteering" by health service vendors and abuses by welfare administration were hiking costs.

The welfare system, in the first four months of state takeover, also was under attack by some welfare recipients who demanded more of everything, invaded welfare offices, assaulted social workers and ransacked desks.

The report also stated that addition of Medicaid plus increases in aid to families with dependent children were pushing up welfare cost at an unprecedented rate.

The report, developed chiefly under direction of Sen. Beryl W. Cohen, D-Brookline, committee chairman, with two state police investigators, asserted last week that yearly welfare costs would go over $1 billion within two years.

The report said: "Numerous physicians, druggists and dentists are exploiting welfare recipients to an alarming extent by providing unnecessary, duplicative and costly services." Doctors are writing prescriptions for items such as toothpaste, soap, bandage and mouthwashes. Ten Boston dentists have been paid a total of more than $1 million this year for welfare work. Ten Boston druggists have been paid nearly $750,000 for sales to welfare recipients in the first seven months of 1968.

Welfare recipients are allowed to own their own homes and recipients are increasingly buying real estate, including "many instances" of two or three-family homes. When a recipient fails to pay his rent or utilities, the Welfare Department will make full payment without penalty. The use of emergency food orders "has skyrocketed."

Department stores are creating divisions in furniture and household goods sections to encourage welfare recipients to buy. Recipients also have used taxicabs for unauthorized purposes and one Boston cab firm was paid $60,000 for transportation, including an average $12.20 per ride in July. The department pays the full costs of moving and a mover who owns one truck has been paid $113,000 for the first seven months of 1968.

State Welfare Commissioner Robert F. Ott and Cohen agreed that virtually no improper charges had been or would be paid because of the department's audit system.

Ott disagreed with the $1-billion-cost prediction, but gave no estimate of his own.

The commissioner said he needs more time to put major changes into effect, including (Continued on Page 22)

SANTA'S HELPERS — Preparing Santa's House for the arrival Friday of Jolly Old St. Nick in Circleville were, from the left, Chris Bailey, Judy Hatfield, Judy Knisley and Linda Ward, members of the Jaycees Wives. The Jaycee sponsored Santa Claus parade will be held beginning at 2 p.m. Friday. Circleville merchants provide the funds for the $733 budget that makes the parade and the visit of Santa possible. Solicitors this year were Jack Mader, Charles Gerhardt, Mike Alkire, Larry Knisley, Bob Seranton, Jake Bailey, Ernie Lindsey and Larry Lewis. Dr. Robert Liggett is chairman of the project.

De Gaulle Seeks To Force Monetary Changes His Way

By STEPHENS BROENING
Associated Press Writer
PARIS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle is playing for time in a hope that the current crisis of the franc will force the Western world to remake its monetary system the way he wants it.

In the radio speech Sunday night in which he announced austerity measures to defend the franc, De Gaulle said: "We are finally seeing the day when the whole world will agree to establish an impartial and reasonable monetary system putting each country — when it needs it — in a place protected from sudden and absurd speculative movements."

De Gaulle's ideas on reform, high French officials explain, include a worldwide readjustment of currency parities within a return to the gold standard. This would mean a rise in the official price of gold — in other words devaluation of the dollar — and an end to the dollar's role as the chief reserve currency.

The political consequences of such a reform would be limitation of U.S. influence abroad, giving De Gaulle a more dominant place in Europe, French sources say.

Hints that this basic French aim is being maintained emerged from accounts of the cabinet discussion Saturday when De Gaulle surprisingly decided not to devalue the franc.

Informed sources said Foreign Minister Michel Debre dominated the debate. A fervent nationalist, Debre argued against the kind of devaluation that would leave most other currencies untouched, that is a drop of less than 10 per cent in the franc's parity.

Debre proposed that the franc be defended. But if it must be devalued, he said, then it should fall far enough to bring other major Western currencies with it — the pound and perhaps the dollar.

County Men Inducted Into Armed Service

Two Pickaway County registrants were inducted into the Armed Forces at Ft. Hayes Induction Center, Columbus, on Nov. 21. They were Thomas F. Tootie, Route 2 and Benjamin F. Fout III of 141 Cottage Hill. Fout was a volunteer.

Red Cross Volunteers served doughnuts, donated by Lindsey's Bakery and coffee. Both men were presented with a packet containing writing materials and other items provided by Sertoma Club and Red Cross.

Bake Sale Proceeds To Aid Knece Fund

The community of Five Points will have a bake sale 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Friday, Nov. 29 at Kochheiser Hardware. Proceeds of the sale will be donated to the Stephen Knece Fund.

OS Other Universities Plan Telescope

Steerable Radar Facility Would Cost $20 Million

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Construction of the largest steerable radar telescope in the world is being planned by Ohio State and 10 other Midwestern universities.

Although no site has been picked for the facilities, a panel of scientists has suggested construction of the telescope with two supplementary stations to form a triangle with 200-mile sides.

The telescope will cost about $20 million. It will be a dish-shaped structure 360 feet in diameter. The largest comparable instrument now in use is the 240-foot radio telescope at Jodrell Bank, England.

In addition to Ohio State, universities working on the project are Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Northwestern, Purdue, Wisconsin and the University of Chicago.

The new facilities will be used for research in aeronomy, astronomy, meteorology, plasma physics and space science.

Primary function of the telescope will be aeronomy, the study of the earth's upper atmosphere.

The facility also will be used for telemetry and tracking of space probes, and will allow detailed study of surface features of Mercury, Venus and Mars to provide information for the planning of future space flights.

Stock Prices Nearly Even

NEW YORK (AP) — Wall Street took a relaxed stance regarding the European currency crisis today. Stock market prices were higher and the bond markets were quiet.

Gains outnumbered losses by about 200 issues on the New York Exchange.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up .56 at 967.62.

Some of the gold-mining stocks were strong again, as they usually are in a period of currency uncertainty.

Other nonferrous metals were a little higher. Steels continued a mild recovery from recent selling. Autos were mixed. Oils were mostly higher.

Analysts saw the other economic news factors as encouraging. Gains were reported for new factory orders and machine tool orders.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .4 at 360.2, with industrials up 1.0, rails off .4, and utilities up .4.

Prices were generally higher on the American Stock Exchange.

Rhodes Leads List Of GOP Notables Talking To Nixon

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes flies to New York City today to confer with President-Elect Richard M. Nixon, the man who has called him an "expert" in producing jobs and reducing welfare rolls.

Rhodes is scheduled to huddle with Nixon in the Hotel Pierre at 5 p.m. Nixon telephoned Rhodes Sunday and asked him to make the trip.

John McElroy, Rhodes' executive assistant, said they would discuss issues involving Ohio and other "big city" states.

Rhodes, mentioned at the Republican National Convention as a possible Nixon running mate and more recently as a potential cabinet member, has denied interest in becoming part of a Nixon administration in Washington.

State political leaders say the governor, who cannot succeed himself again, is eyeing the U.S. Senate race in 1970, the same year his second gubernatorial term expires.

Although Rhodes did not throw the Ohio delegation behind Nixon at the convention, the President-elect is known to have high regard for Rhodes' leadership ability. The governor campaigned in Ohio with Nixon and Vice President-elect Spiro T. Agnew.

Rhodes also has spoken out several times for block federal grants to states instead of categorical grants and their accompanying red tape. Nixon favors a similar plan.

Nixon has had two telephone conversations with Rhodes since the Nov. 5 election, according to aides.

Other GOP notables, their names not yet announced, also were understood to be on Nixon's office schedule for the immediate future.

There was no indication, however, that New York's Republican governor, Nelson A. Rockefeller, would be among the early arrivals. Rockefeller who contested Nixon for the GOP presidential nomination, is mentioned as a possible Cabinet choice in the Republican administration that takes office Jan. 20.

The President-elect and Mrs. Nixon, their daughter Julie and prospective son-in-law David Eisenhower went to morning services at the Marble Collegiate Church where Miss Nixon and the grandson of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower will be married Dec. 22.

Nixon apparently will spend most, if not all, of this holiday week in New York. Except for Thanksgiving Day, he will hold a succession of meetings with GOP chieftains in preparation for the series of Cabinet announcements that his spokesmen have said will be made after Dec. 5.

Besides talking to visitors about possible appointments to administration posts, Nixon will discuss programs he will present to the Democratic-controlled Congress come late January and February.

Ohio Counts 23 Fatalities On Highways Over Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Ohioans drove their cars into poles, trees, trains, bridges, people and other cars in causing 23 traffic deaths over the weekend.

Of the total, only five deaths occurred in accidents involving more than one car. Two of the victims were pedestrians.

The Associated Press traffic count began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday. The latest deaths:

SATURDAY
Ray Sherbert, 35, Blanchester, in a one-car crash near Edenton, Clermont County.
Justin Roysdon, 16, Cincinnati, when the car he was riding in hit a utility pole in Cincinnati.
Thomas Murray Jr., 29, Milan, when his car hit an underpass abutment on U.S. 250 south of Sandusky.
Gray Lee Lichtenwalter, 22, near Beloit, when his car left the road at the intersection of U.S. 62 and Ohio 173 east of Canton.

SUNDAY
Carl Baker, 18, Powhatan Point, in a one-car wreck on Ohio 148 near Powhatan Point in Belmont County.
James Green, 33, Sandusky, in a one-car crash on Sandusky street.
Shirley Clark, 19, Galena, fatally injured when the car in which she was a passenger crashed at the intersection of U.S. 33 and Ohio 745 near Dublin in Franklin County.

6 Prisoners Returned To County Jail

Six prisoners from the Pickaway County jail caught in Friday's riot were returned by the neighboring counties today.

Fayette County transferred Clarence Castle and Peter DeFazio to the local jail Monday morning. Ross county sheriff's deputies returned Clifford McGowan, Junior Parsons, Melvin Sickle and Medley West.

Indications are that the six men returned took no active part in the attempted jail break and riot, according to a sheriff's deputy.

DeFazio, who was in jail awaiting trial for illegally purchasing narcotics, was reported in ill health Sunday by the Fayette County Sheriff's Department which stated that he had gone into an epileptic seizure.

In transferring the prisoners Friday, local lawmen forgot to send DeFazio's medicine along with him.

California Air Crashes Claim 16

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Fog, a factor when two of three plane crashes took 16 lives in California over the weekend, hampered the search today for another plane missing four days.

All seven passengers and two pilots lost their lives when a twin-engine commuter airplane cutting through thick fog to land clipped a 40-foot light standard and flipped to earth. The propeller crashed on a freeway embankment, spewing flaming debris across all lanes of the Newport Freeway. Just one day before the director of the Orange County Airport — the plane's destination — said new safety equipment was "desperately needed." Robert J. Benahan, the director, specifically called for additional instrumentation at the airport to assist planes groping through fog and low clouds for landings at the field. One of the three busiest in Southern California. At the crash scene, Randy Robertson, 28, of Huntington Beach, said "a fog bank had just rolled across the freeway." He was one of five motorists narrowly escaping injury from the cartwheeling wreckage.

"It's incredible that it missed all those cars," said Santa Ana Police Sgt. James Dillon.

The site of the Saturday night crash southeast of Los Angeles was one mile from the Orange County Airport runway in Santa Ana, the plane's destination on a 30-mile hop from Los Angeles International Airport. Later, both airports were forced to halt operations.

Near Modesto in central California a rancher discovered the wreckage Saturday of a light plane that disappeared in fog three days earlier and crashed, killing two school administrators and the pilot aboard.

Four members of a San Jose family were killed in the Sierra Nevada range when their light plane crashed Saturday night.

more in addition to correlated care. Pharmacy bills for drugs are reportedly on a "pay as you go" basis.

Huffer said that payments would be made on the hospital bill from the fund and current and future drug bills could be paid from the fund "as long as the money holds out."

Knece's insurance companies have also settled their share of the medical expenses. The contracts were cancelled in September, but payment has been made to the hospital for expenses incurred to that date.

KNECE, whose 19th birthday is Tuesday, was reported to be in satisfactory condition today at the hospital. He will have to undergo more surgery within the next couple of weeks to remove his kidneys which were left in his body due to a shortage of time when the transplant was made nearly three weeks ago.

Contributions received today totaled $613 bringing the fund total to $5,388.22. A donation of $52.45, reported Saturday, was collected by Rick Norris and Mary Housh in the Bloomdale Addition. Donations were received today from: Child Study Club, $25; $5 additional from the Avondale Addition; $78 collected from the Elsea and Jefferson Additions by Pat Black, K. Hensley, Ruth C. Crist; Heidelberg Sunday School, $315; McFerren Guitar Band, $25; Salem Methodist Church $100; in addition to individuals.

Proceeds from benefits already planned for the Stephen Knece Fund and not yet received, will be earmarked for current and future medical expenses. However, as stated earlier, requests for contributions have been terminated.

Stolen Car Is Recovered

A stolen car was recovered by Sheriff Dwight Radcliff in Scioto Twp. Saturday.

The car, owned by Hazel Swim of Grove City, had been stolen between 1 and 7 a.m. Saturday and discarded on Red Path Road near Snyder Road early Saturday morning, according to Sheriff Radcliff.

The 1967 car, found and reported by Ernest White of Sunset Drive Saturday afternoon, had been stripped of its motor, transmission, convertible top, radio and other items.

The incident is still under investigation by the sheriff's department.

Rhodes Leads List Of GOP Notables Talking To Nixon

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes flies to New York City today to confer with President-Elect Richard M. Nixon, the man who has called him an "expert" in producing jobs and reducing welfare rolls.

Rhodes is scheduled to huddle with Nixon in the Hotel Pierre at 5 p.m. Nixon telephoned Rhodes Sunday and asked him to make the trip.

John McElroy, Rhodes' executive assistant, said they would discuss issues involving Ohio and other "big city" states.

Rhodes, mentioned at the Republican National Convention as a possible Nixon running mate and more recently as a potential cabinet member, has declined interest in becoming part of a Nixon administration in Washington.

State political leaders say the governor, who cannot succeed himself again, is eyeing the U.S. Senate race in 1970, the same year his second gubernatorial term expires.

Although Rhodes did not throw the Ohio delegation behind Nixon at the convention, the President-elect is known to have high regard for Rhodes' leadership ability. The governor campaigned in Ohio with Nixon and Vice President-elect Spiro T. Agnew.

Rhodes also has spoken out several times for block federal grants to states instead of categorical grants and their accompanying red tape. Nixon favors a similar plan.

Nixon has had two telephone conversations with Rhodes since the Nov. 5 election, according to aides.

Other GOP notables, their names not yet announced, also were understood to be on Nixon's office schedule for the immediate future.

There was no indication, however, that New York's Republican governor, Nelson A. Rockefeller, would be among the early arrivals. Rockefeller who contested Nixon for the GOP presidential nomination, is mentioned as a possible cabinet choice in the Republican administration that takes office Jan. 20.

The President-elect and Mrs. Nixon, their daughter Julie and prospective son-in-law David Eisenhower went to morning services at the Marble Collegiate Church where Miss Nixon and the grandson of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower will be married Dec. 22.

Nixon apparently will spend most, if not all, of this holiday week in New York. Except for Thanksgiving Day, he will hold a succession of meetings with GOP chieftains in preparation for the series of Cabinet announcements that his spokesmen have said will be made after Dec. 5.

Notable appointments to administration posts, Nixon will discuss programs he will present to the Democratic-controlled Congress come late January and February.

more in addition to correlated care. Pharmacy bills for drugs are reportedly on a "pay as you go" basis.

Huffer said that payments would be made on the hospital bill from the fund and current and future drug bills could be paid from the fund "as long as the money holds out."

Knee's insurance companies have also settled their share of the medical expenses. The contracts were cancelled in September, but payment has been made to the hospital for expenses incurred to that date.

KNEE, whose 19th birthday is Tuesday, was reported to be in satisfactory condition today at the hospital. He will have to undergo more surgery within the next couple of weeks to remove his kidneys which were left in his body due to a shortage of time when the transplant was made nearly three weeks ago.

Contributions received today totaled $613 bringing the fund total to $5,388.22. A donation of $25.45, reported Saturday, was collected by Rick Norris and Mary Housh in the Bloomdale Addition. Donations were received today from: Child Study Club, $25; $5 additional from the Avondale Addition; $78 collected from the Elsea and Jefferson Additions by Pat Black, K. Hensley, Ruth C. Crist; Heidelberg Sunday School, $315; McFarren Guitar Band, $25; Salem Methodist Church $100; in addition to individuals.

Proceeds from benefits already planned for the Stephen Knece Fund and not yet received, will be earmarked for current and future medical expenses. However, as stated earlier, requests for contributions have been terminated.

Stolen Car Is Recovered

A stolen car was recovered by Sheriff Dwight Radcliff in Scioto Twp. Saturday.

The car, owned by Hazel Swin of Grove City, had been stolen between 1 and 7 a.m. Saturday and discarded on Red Path Road near Snyder Road early Saturday morning, according to Sheriff Radcliff.

The 1967 car, found and reported by Ernest White of Sunset Drive Saturday afternoon, had been stripped of its motor, transmission, convertible top, radio and other items.

The incident is still under investigation by the sheriff's department.

Dead was Stuart Harper, who police said drank most of the gasoline in the bottle and then complained of stomach pains.

The owner of the billiard parlor quoted Harper as saying he thought there was scotch in the bottle.

California Air Crashes Claim 16

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Fog, a factor when two of three plane crashes took 16 lives in California over the weekend, hampered the search today for another plane missing four days.

All seven passengers and two pilots lost their lives when a twin-engine commuter airplane cutting through thick fog to land clipped a 40-foot light standard and flipped to earth. The propeller crashed on a freeway embankment, snoving flaming debris across all lanes of the New-nort Freeway. Just one day before the director of the Orange County Airport—the plane's destination—said "desperately needed." Robert J. Benahan, the director, specifically called for additional instrumentation at the airport to assist planes groping through fog and low clouds for landings at the field, one of the busiest in Southern California. At the crash scene, Randy Robertson, 28, of Huntington Beach, said "a fog bank had just rolled across the freeway." He was one of five motorists narrowly escaping injury from the cartwheeling wreckage.

"It's incredible that it missed all those cars," said Santa Ana Police Sgt. James Dillon.

The site of the Saturday night crash southeast of Los Angeles was one mile from the Orange County Airport runway in Santa Ana. The plane's destination on a 30-mile hop from Los Angeles International Airport. Later, both airports were forced to halt operations.

Near Modesto in central California a rancher discovered the wreckage Saturday of a light plane that disappeared in fog three days earlier and crashed, killing two school administrators and the pilot aboard.

Four members of a San Jose family were killed in the Sierra Nevada range when their light plane crashed Saturday night.

Dead was Stuart Harper, who police said drank most of the gasoline in the bottle and then complained of stomach pains.

The owner of the billiard parlor quoted Harper as saying he thought there was scotch in the bottle.

Ohio Counts 23 Fatalities On Highways Over Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Ohioans drove their cars into poles, trees, trains, bridges, people and other cars in causing 23 traffic deaths over the weekend.

Of the total, only five deaths occurred in accidents involving more than one car. Two of the victims were pedestrians.

The Associated Press traffic count began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.

The latest deaths:

SATURDAY
Ray Sherbert, 35, Blanchester, in a one-car crash near Edenton, Clermont County.

Justin Roysdon, 16, Cincinnati, when the car he was riding in hit a utility pole in Cincinnati.

Thomas Murray Jr., 29, Milan, when his car hit an underpass abutment on U.S. 250 south of Sandusky.

Gray Lee Lichtenwalter, 22, near Beloit, when his car left the road at the intersection of U.S. 62 and Ohio 173 east of Canton.

SUNDAY
Carl Baker, 18, Powhatan Point, in a one-car wreck on Ohio 148 near Powhatan Point in Belmont County.

James Green, 33, Sandusky, in a one-car crash on Sandusky street.

Shirley Clark, 19, Galena, fatally injured when the car in which she was a passenger crashed at the intersection of U.S. 33 and Ohio 745 near Dublin in Franklin County.

Gasoline Drink Fatal To Ohioan

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — A 52-year-old Cleveland man died Sunday night after drinking a half pint of gasoline from a soft drink bottle he found in an East Side billiard parlor, police said.

Dead was Stuart Harper, who police said drank most of the gasoline in the bottle and then complained of stomach pains.

The owner of the billiard parlor quoted Harper as saying he thought there was scotch in the bottle.

OSO, Other Universities Plan Telescope

Steerable Radar Facility Would Cost $20 Million

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Construction of the largest steerable radar telescope in the world is being planned by Ohio State and 10 other Midwestern universities.

Although no site has been picked for the facilities, a panel of scientists has suggested construction of the telescope with two supplementary stations to form a triangle with 200-mile sides.

The telescope will cost about $20 million. It will be a dish-shaped structure 360 feet in diameter. The largest comparable instrument now in use is the 240-foot radio telescope at Jodrell Bank, England.

In addition to Ohio State, universities working on the project are Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Northwestern, Purdue, Wisconsin and the University of Chicago.

The new facilities will be used for research in aeronomy, astronomy, meteorology, plasma physics and space science.

Primary function of the telescope will be aeronomy, the study of the earth's upper atmosphere.

The facility also will be used for telemetry and tracking of space probes, and will allow detailed study of surface features of Mercury, Venus and Mars to provide information for the planning of future space flights.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford says he is convinced Hanoi wants peace and believes "we can convince Saigon that it would be better for all if the war ended."

Clifford said Sunday he is optimistic the South Vietnamese will join the Paris peace talks, possibly selecting Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky to head their delegation.

"I would suspect they could take up the lead on some matters," Clifford said. "There are other matters in which we might take the lead."

He cited discussion of withdrawing both U.S. and North Vietnamese troops from South Vietnam as a subject in which U.S. negotiators likely would take the lead.

Clifford said he believes Hanoi wants peace because its efforts for military victory—by guerrilla tactics until last January and open attacks on cities since then—have not succeeded.

He also said he believes President-elect Richard M. Nixon will want to maintain some consistency of U.S. negotiators at Paris but there may be a gradual "slipping in of the new and a slipping out of the old" U.S. representatives.

Clifford was interviewed on ABC's "Issues and Answers."

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal research project is being set up to check the preliminary finding that a substance widely used in artificial sweeteners could lead to birth defects.

Dr. John J. Schrogie, acting director of the Food and Drug Administration's research division, said results should be in about three months after the tests on humans are begun.

He said the substance—cyclohexylamine—might break up chromosomes and lead to birth defects has been found so far only in laboratory and animal studies not involving humans.

"We are not alarmed about it—we are concerned," Schrogie said. "We are in contact with most of the investigators and are doing work on our own."

Sen. Charles Goodell, R-N.Y., says U.S. troops should be used if necessary to save Israel from Arab conquest. "If Israel is attacked and in jeopardy," he said, "we should support them."

Goodell was interviewed on the Metromedia television program "Opinion: Washington."

Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., says "the hardest battlefield" for his proposed constitutional amendment for direct popular election of the president would be ratification by three-fourths of the state legislatures. But he said that is not an insurmountable obstacle.

Bayh appeared on NBC's "Meet the Press."

Hatchet Job On Nixon

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN
Whoever said Arthur Schlesinger Jr. is a historian? He's a hatchet man, the most expert in the country. His long article on Richard Nixon, printed in the New York Times Sunday magazine for November 17, drips with feline innuendo, false comparisons, casual misstatement of position. The blood spurts from practically every sentence.

Let's begin with the comparisons. Arthur says that Nixon "seems sectionless and classless"; he is a "product of the mobility of the new technical society," one of the "mobile 'new' men who inhabit what J. K. Galbraith has called the 'technostructure.'" All this is based on the fact that Nixon, after losing out to Pat Brown in a fight to become Governor of California, decided to move to New York in order to make some money at his profession of the law. Schlesinger says that President John F. Kennedy, in contrast to Nixon, had deep roots "in the eastern aristocracy." Johnson "in Texas feudalism," Eisenhower "in the military world," "Truman in the middle border." Nixon's sin is that he was "born in California, trained to the law in North Carolina, elected to the Presidency from New York."

What a mishmash. John F. Kennedy was not rooted "in the eastern aristocracy"; he was the son of a self-made Irishman of immigrant stock who quit the Boston area to move to a New York suburb in order to play the stock market. I say this not in criticism of Joe Kennedy, whose ambition was to catch up with the Yankees he had left behind back in the Bay State. He was a good man who realized that money could give his children an Ivy League patina that he had not quite achieved for himself at Harvard when the Irish were struggling to rise above second-class campus citizenship. He sent son John to Princeton and to the London School of Economics in addition to Harvard. John's relations to the "eastern aristocracy" (whatever that means) were those of a rootless young man who passed his early life moving from New York suburbia to a "summer people's" Cape Cod and on to a Palm Beach swimming pool where, as Rose Kennedy said in a moment of nostalgic desolation, her children grew up. In other words, the Kennedys were mobile "new men," newcomers to wealth. Again, this isn't said in criticism; "new men" are needed.

As for Eisenhower, he was the first of his family to become a military man. Johnson, as representative of "Texas feudalism," is a laugh; are we to understand that cowboys are peasants? Johnson was a schoolteacher whose roots were in Populism.

Nixon went to law school at Duke University, but it is absurd to say that he was "trained in the law in North Carolina." He never practiced there; his law experience was gained in small-town California. And why shouldn't he have moved to New York to make money? Joe Kennedy did.

The fact is that Nixon has always been rooted in the wide middle class, just as Harry Truman was. He knows what it is to fight for a dollar, a job, a conviction. He has changed less than John F. Kennedy changed; after all, Kennedy began his effective political career with a speech that alleged it was the State Department which lost China to Mao Tse-tung. As James MacGregor Burns points out, JFK was evasive on McCarthyism, and Bobby Kennedy worked for Joe McCarthy.

Schlesinger holds Nixon's 1962 chastisement of the press against him, presumably as an example of the "paranoia" he imputes to a man who, like Lyndon Johnson, is capable of expressing anger when he thinks he has been treated unfairly. Well, listen to former editor of the Washington Post J. Russell Wiggins on the subject of Nixon's wrath. Says Mr. Wiggins: "I didn't join the criticism of Nixon for his in-temperate remarks to the press after his loss to Pat Brown... He was damned sore... The questions rubbed him the wrong way, so why shouldn't he answer sharply to reporters? I think any good reporter would respect him more for reacting that way."

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Today is Monday, Nov. 25, the 330th day of 1968. There are 36 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1783, the British evacuated New York, their last military position in the United States.

On this date: In 1758, in the French and Indian war, the British captured Ft. Duquesne.

In 1861, Carson City was selected as the capital of Nevada.

In 1863, federal troops captured Missionary Ridge in the final day of the Civil War battle at Lookout Mountain, Tenn.

In 1920, station WTAW of College Station, Tex., broadcast the first play-by-play description of a football game in radio history.

In 1943, during the Pacific war, allied planes raided the Japanese-held island on Formosa.

In 1957, the American public was stunned by an announcement that President Dwight D. Eisenhower had suffered a mild stroke.

Ten years ago — It was announced that the United States planned to launch space probes at the rate of 8 to 12 each year, starting in 1959.

Five years ago — President John F. Kennedy was buried in Arlington National Cemetery.

One year — More than 75 persons died in the South American country of Colombia after eating bread contaminated by an insecticide.

An airplane which waves its wings like a bird during flight has been developed by Russian scientists, according to the Moscow newspaper Pravda. We doubt whether it'll prove part of the wave of the future.

The "Ornithopter" — that's the name of the wing-waving plane — has one built-in hazard. It could be mistaken for a wild goose or duck during hunting season.

Dragon lizards, when born, have beards — nature item. Verrry interesting! — wonder how you can tell 'em apart from their grandpas!

Armor worn by knights doing battle in medieval times, according to historians, tipped the scales at 100 pounds or so. Guess you had to be a pretty powerful guy to be able to throw that kind of weight around.

It's almost that time of year, says Zadok Dumkopf, when we'll again have the old controversy over whether that reindeer's name is spelled "Donner" or "Donder."

Dyan Cannon Busy

By BOB THOMAS
AP Television-Movie Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "Thank God I had something to turn to, something to occupy my mind—acting. I feel sorry for the millions of divorced women who have to go it alone with nothing to help them keep busy."

Dyan Cannon described her state of mind on returning to film acting for the first time since her sensation-ridden divorce from Cary Grant. She is costarring with Natalie Wood, Robert Culp and Elliott Gould in "Bob and Carol and Ted and Alice." Dyan is Alice. As you might guess from today's brand of film entertainment, the film concerns two married couples who change mates.

How did she get the role? "I tested for it," she said rather proudly. "The producer, Mike Frankovich, thought so much of it, he showed it to a convention of theater men in San Francisco. So I guess I did all right."

The return to acting proved to be a tonic for her, said Miss Cannon, who admitted that the breakup of her marriage disturbed her deeply.

"For eight months I couldn't do anything," she recalled. "I was too stunned, too confused and upset over what had happened. Then one day something inside me clicked. I realized that I was not going to get anywhere sitting around and feeling sorry for myself; it was time for me to go out and get busy. I arrived at this decision myself, but of course I had excellent help getting there."

The help came from sessions with a psychiatrist. In the divorce trial she testified that she had been greatly upset by her husband's erratic behavior while apparently under the influence of LSD. For that reason she tried to deny Grant rights to care for their daughter Jennifer during vacations. The judge denied her request on the grounds that Grant no longer used LSD.

Miss Cannon remarked that her relations with her ex-husband are now more pleasant, and they occasionally see each other on social occasions. Only once did she hint of the acrimony that was displayed in the divorce trial. When asked if she had to work to earn a living, she snapped:

"I surely do. I came out of that divorce without a house, without a car, without a bit of community property."

Furthermore, her alimony will end after three years. Why such a relatively small settlement after three years of marriage and one child by one of Hollywood's richest men? She was advised to shun an out-of-court settlement in order to fight Grant's right to share custody of their daughter. But she lost in court.

AND SPEAKING of Las Vegas, the owners of the posh and crowded Caesar's Palace there are very annoyed—but very—with the fresh kid who's opened an orange juice

Prohibition was a disaster for many, but the owners of nightclubs in Manhattan never had it so good either before or since. Consider the attractions they could afford to book—all in New York, and all flourishing, and the same time: The Heigh Ho Club featured the dancing of Fred and Adele Astaire, plus the warbling of Rudy Vallee. Lobby Holman starred at the Lido and Beatrice Lillie at the Sutton Club. At the Fifty-Fourth Street Place, Helen Morgan held forth, and Sid Silvers and Phil Baker starred at the Little Club. Joe Frisco was the stuttering host at the Back Stage and Clayton, Jackson and Durante were smashing furniture at the Club Durante. Add to all these celebrities, Paul Whiteman at the Frolic and Clifton Webb at Ciro's. Even Las Vegas never has had a line-up comparable to that!

Did the mobsters participate in the ownership of these glorified speak-easies? Well, one New York assistant district attorney was all but laughed out of the state when he cautiously testified in court that he had discovered that "gunmen were reputed to have a small interest in one of the clubs."

"Marriage," maintains Oscar Levant, "is for bores." He adds, however, "I mean Gabor!" (It was Friend Sam Behrman who explained, "There's nothing wrong with Oscar Levant that a really first-class miracle couldn't cure.")

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

Do tropical diseases ever occur in northern, colder climates? There are a number of diseases that are found specifically in tropical and subtropical countries. These are listed in the group classification of filariasis. In most instances infection is introduced into humans by a number of different types of mosquitoes.

The mosquito harbors the small filaria in its muscles and then infects the human by biting or breaking the skin. The symptoms vary, depending on the particular kind of nematode that infects the human.

The names of some of these diseases are interesting. Onchocerciasis is spread by the bite of black flies. Loiasis is another form of filariasis transmitted by the bite of a specific fly. Another dracunculiasis, is caused by the guinea worm found in infected waters used by humans.

Kala-azar, uta, bilharziasis and yaws are all prevalent in sub-tropical climates with poor hygiene and polluted drinking water.

My favorite sounding name is Tsutsugamushi fever which is caused by mites found particularly in Asiatic areas.

Almost none of these diseases is found in northern climates where the public health services have instituted rigid programs to eradicate the carriers.

Intestinal worms is one of the few tropical conditions prevalent to a high degree in northern climates. Physicians are constantly on the lookout for pinworms even in colder geographic areas.

Is it a sign of poor health if it takes a long time to adjust living in a high altitude? The change from living at sea level to a high altitude puts a great deal of stress on various organs of the body. There probably is no better indication of how difficult it can be than to follow the reactions of young athletes in their twenties, training and competing in the rarified atmosphere of Mexico during the Olympics.

It is understandable, therefore, that older people may be annoyed by palpitation of the heart and rapid breathing at an altitude where the oxygen content of the air is diminished. This immediate reaction in no way indicates poor health. In fact, it means that the thermostat regulators of the body are functioning well to help make this adjustment.

A sense of fatigue after even the slightest exertion can persist for a number of weeks until the physiology of the body makes its complete adjustment. Sometimes it becomes very discouraging, especially to those people who have made a move to a higher altitude because a high dry climate had been suggested for a specific illness.

The process of adjustment is a slow one and should not be pushed to the point of overdoing one's physical limits. After a time the heart, the lungs, and the blood circulation establishes a new balance and once again the individual is able to perform the same amount of activity without difficulty.

Drivers must never adjust the position of their seats while the car is in motion. Stepping on the brake rather than the floor in order to do this causes many accidents.

As for me, I'm damned sore at Arthur Schlesinger. I think he's a lousy reporter. I could write five columns about his hatchet job, but I won't. There are better things to do, such as giving a good fighter a break to see how he will handle himself in the Presidency.

Try and Stop Me

AND SPEAKING of Las Vegas, the owners of the posh and crowded Caesar's Palace there are very annoyed—but very—with the fresh kid who's opened an orange juice stand nearby. He's calling it Squeezer's Palace.

Prohibition was a disaster for many, but the owners of nightclubs in Manhattan never had it so good either before or since. Consider the attractions they could afford to book—all in New York, and all flourishing, and the same time: The Heigh Ho Club featured the dancing of Fred and Adele Astaire, plus the warbling of Rudy Vallee. Libby Holman starred at the Lido and Beatrice Lillie at the Sutton Club. At the Fifty-Fourth Street Place, Helen Morgan held forth, and Sid Silvers and Phil Baker starred at the Little Club. Joe Frisco was the stuttering host at the Back Stage and Clayton, Jackson and Durante were smashing furniture at the Club Durante. Add to all these celebrities, Paul Whiteman at the Frolic and Clifton Webb at Ciro's. Even Las Vegas never has had a line-up comparable to that!

Did the mobsters participate in the ownership of these glorified speak-easies? Well, one New York assistant district attorney was all but laughed out of the state when he cautiously testified in court that he had discovered that "gunmen were reputed to have a small interest in one of the clubs."

"Marriage," maintains Oscar Levant, "is for bores." He adds, however, "I mean Gabor!" (It was Friend Sam Behrman who explained, "There's nothing wrong with Oscar Levant that a really first-class miracle couldn't cure.")

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

Do tropical diseases ever occur in northern, colder climates? There are a number of diseases that are found specifically in tropical and subtropical countries. These are listed in the group classification of filariasis. In most instances infection is introduced into humans by a number of different types of mosquitoes.

The mosquito harbors the small filaria in its muscles and then infects the human by biting or breaking the skin. The symptoms vary, depending on the particular kind of nematode that infects the human.

The names of some of these diseases are interesting. Onchocerciasis is spread by the bite of black flies. Loiasis is another form of filariasis transmitted by the bite of a specific fly. Another dracunculiasis, is caused by the guinea worm found in infected waters used by humans.

Kala-azar, uta, bilharziasis and yaws are all prevalent in sub-tropical climates with poor hygiene and polluted drinking water.

My favorite sounding name is Tsutsugamushi fever which is caused by mites found particularly in Asiatic areas.

Almost none of these diseases is found in northern climates where the public health services have instituted rigid programs to eradicate the carriers.

Intestinal worms is one of the few tropical conditions prevalent to a high degree in northern climates. Physicians are constantly on the lookout for pinworms even in colder geographic areas.

Is it a sign of poor health if it takes a long time to adjust living in a high altitude? The change from living at sea level to a high altitude puts a great deal of stress on various organs of the body. There probably is no better indication of how difficult it can be to follow the reactions of young athletes in their twenties, training and competing in the rarified atmosphere of Mexico during the Olympics.

It is understandable, therefore, that older people may be annoyed by palpitation of the heart and rapid breathing at an altitude where the oxygen content of the air is diminished. This immediate reaction in no way indicates poor health. In fact, it means that the thermostat regulators of the body are functioning well to help make this adjustment.

A sense of fatigue after even the slightest exertion can persist for a number of weeks until the physiology of the body makes its complete adjustment. Sometimes it becomes very discouraging, especially to those people who have made a move to a higher altitude because a high dry climate had been suggested for a specific illness.

The process of adjustment is a slow one and should not be pushed to the point of overdoing one's physical limits. After a time the heart, the lungs, and the blood circulation establishes a new balance and once again the individual is able to perform the same amount of activity without difficulty.

Drivers must never adjust the position of their seats while the car is in motion. Stepping on the brake rather than the floor in order to do this causes many accidents.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. J. (AP) — His good deed finally caught up with T. Sgt. Eugene J. O'Hea of Kirtland Air Force Base in Albuquerque.

In May, O'Hea made a suggestion that is saving about $26,000 annually in computer operations at an Asheville, N. C., weather center. He was on a temporary assignment at the center.

Officials thought he deserved a cost-reduction award. In the meantime, he had gone back to his job with the military Airlift Command at Dover AFB, Del.

The award went to the Delaware base, but O'Hea had left for Kirtland where he finally received it.

LISBON (AP) — In its continuing effort to modernize Portugal's agriculture, the government is making available 26,652,500 escudos ($932,837) in loans to farmers and cooperatives.

The money will go for machinery, rural construction and other purposes, including the purchase of cattle.

Portuguese agriculture has long been plagued by emigration and lack of adequate mechanization.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:
A man is innocent until proven guilty. Does that apply in this town? In the case of Mr. Sines, and alleged beating that supposedly took place Sunday evening, how could Fred Bowshe be so sure as to the guilt of the young man involved, when Mr. Sines couldn't be sure what happened.

None of us are perfect, as God created only one perfect in his image, and that one wasn't Fred Bowshe. He also uses the word "punk" too freely in his letters in reference to our younger generation. These are the same boys who are asked to defend our country. Every mother who has a son would feel as I do. The man's trial was held and he was sentenced without his wife's knowledge as to time, leaving her unable to contact a lawyer to defend her husband. Was this fair?

It may not be very much now but what will it be in ten years? MRS. DAVID MORRIS

Dear Sir:
I read Wednesday's Herald with a bit of apprehension. Our mayor and Councilman David Goldschmidt both urged the passage of a one per cent city income tax. Estimates of income vary from 150,000 to $300,000 dollars, a rather wide variation.

As a sop to the taxpayer the 1 mill operating levy will be dropped after 1969. Let us see how this will work out for our average citizen Joe Doe.

Joe makes $5,000 per year and is buying a home (not a new one) that costs him $11,500. This home is on the tax book for $5,000. Joe pays about $170 per year in taxes.

Under the proposed city income tax, Joe will pay $50 city income tax but will save on the one mill operating levy one dollar per $1,000 of tax value a total of $5.00. Joe is also helped out in Federal Income Tax by about $7.

Joe has a three year old car and an old '48 fishing car. On these he will have to pay an additional $10 city tax in '69. This ten dollars will eliminate the above savings.

Joe sees that he might as well vote a new operating levy for the city of ten mills. It will cost him no more and the city will not have any cost of setting up a new tax office and new tax employees.

Joe is pretty bright and he knows that a referendum is his way of stopping things passed by Council that are not to his liking.

If Joe does not get a referendum out on this, I may move into town and get one out myself.

JOHN D. ROBINSON

Dear Sir:
I am writing in regard to the article in Wednesday night's paper, (November 20th) about a proposed city income tax.

I know there is much that is needed to be done in our town. There are many streets that need to be repaired, many street lights that need replacing and many other such jobs that need to be done to make Circleville a better place to live. There are many things I would like to buy to make my home a better place to live also, but I can not afford them. There are many things I not only want, but really need for my home, but I simply can't afford to have them now.

Getting back to the subject at hand, we now have an additional $5 to pay for our automobile tags. It will cost us $15.00 next year. At one time I suppose it only cost a few dollars for these tags. What will it cost us ten years from now, at the rate it's going?

What I am trying to say is, don't start a city income tax in Circleville. Aren't we burdened with enough taxes now? It is getting to the point where I feel we are working to put money in some one else's pocket, because it doesn't seem to be going in ours.

I like Circleville because it is a small town, but it seems we are leaning too much towards being like Columbus. I would not live in Columbus. I worked in that rat race town for nearly two years, and that was more of Columbus than I wanted. Don't make Circleville like that.

We pay taxes on nearly every thing, and what isn't taxed now, will be some day. We can not stand to even hear the word "tax". Is it any wonder? We are sick to death with taxes!

I know that in order to have a country great as ours we must have taxes to pay for it. I know that it is a big responsibility to maintain a town like Circleville and to make it a good place to live. Things have to be paid for some how, but a city or town must live within its budget, just as a family has to live within its budget.

If we start this income tax in Circleville it is here to stay.

Various Electoral College Reform Plans Analyzed

By DICK BARNES
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard M. Nixon would have failed to get an Electoral College majority if the presidential election had been held under one of the electoral reform plans most often suggested.

The president-elect would have narrowly led Hubert H. Humphrey—but would not have had a majority—if each state's electoral college votes had been divided proportionately rather than going to one candidate on a winner-take-all basis.

Under some versions of this proposed reform, that plurality would have been sufficient to elect Nixon. But under others, lack of a majority would have thrown the election to the House of Representatives—an eventuality that most reform plans aim at avoiding.

Nixon would have won a slight majority if electoral votes had been allocated on a congressional district basis, another suggested alternative to the Electoral College. But his margin would have been smaller than the majority he actually got under the present system.

These theoretical results were compiled from virtually complete but unofficial election returns.

The other major reform plan would abolish the Electoral College, which has been in use since 1804, and elect the president by direct popular vote. Nixon also would have won under this system.

Proposals for election reform traditionally spring up in the wake of close elections. Reformers argue that the existing machinery may one day elect a president who is not the popular choice—or may break down entirely and produce no president except after prolonged wheeling and dealing.

With a third major candidate in the field—as was George C. Wallace this time—the chances for an indecisive verdict appear to multiply.

Hearings are planned by the Senate constitutional revision subcommittee on how to improve the election procedure and eliminate the chance of constitutional crisis. The subcommittee chairman, Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., is a leading advocate of direct popular election of the president.

If the present system is to be changed, the Constitution must be amended. That means the Senate and House must each, by two-thirds vote of its membership, settle on a single reform plan. Then it must be ratified by the legislatures of 38 states.

There are numerous arguments for and against the present Electoral College and each suggested substitute. Even within each broad reform plan there are arguments over how the fine print should read.

Here's a look at each principal system, the characteristics that stir debate about it, and how it works when the 1968 election results are plugged in.

The existing system: Each state has as many votes in the Electoral College as it has representatives and senators in Congress. The District of Columbia has three. All of a state's votes are cast by electors announced as favorable to the candidate who wins the most popular votes in the state, although only 16 states and the district require their electors to follow the voters' choice. A majority of the electoral votes—270 of 538 this year—is required for election. If there is no majority, the House of Representatives elects the president.

Nixon won the popular vote in 32 states, giving him 302 electoral votes—a majority. Humphrey won 13 states and the District of Columbia for 191 electoral votes. Wallace won five states worth 45 votes.

Despite a better than 3-to-2 electoral edge over Humphrey, Nixon won the popular balloting by less than 350,000 votes out of 72 million cast. His 44 per cent of the popular vote was good for 56 per cent of the electoral vote; Humphrey got 43 per cent of the popular vote but only 36 per cent of the electoral; Wallace won 13 per cent popular, 9 per cent electoral.

The Electoral College originally was seen as a body of the elite who would rationally debate the merits of presidential candidates and pick the best man—a task not trusted to the ordinary voter in the old days of poor communication, transportation and education. The winner-take-all system for each state evolved as states sought to maximize their power rather than have a divided delegation that canceled itself out.

Smaller states have a stronger voice per capita in the college than bigger states because the number of electors is based partly on membership in the Senate—where population is not a factor. For example, Virginia is five times as populous as Rhode Island and has 10 congressmen to Rhode Island's two. But adding the senators gives Virginia 12 electoral votes to Rhode Island's 4—only three times as many.

On the other hand, candidates still key their campaigns to big states such as California, where voters determine the selection of 40 electors, instead of states like Vermont with only three votes in the Electoral College.

A candidate could theoretically get on the ballot in the 12 biggest states, carry each by a margin of one vote and be elected, even if he didn't get a single vote in the rest of the country.

In actual practice, three winners of the popular vote have failed to be elected president. Grover Cleveland outpolled Benjamin Harrison in 1888 and Samuel Tilden won more popular votes than Rutherford B. Hayes in 1876 only to lose in the Electoral College. In 1824, Andrew Jackson led John Quincy Adams in both popular and electoral votes, but did not have an electoral majority. The election went to the House with elected Adams.

One minor reform plan would require that electoral votes be cast automatically for each state's winner, thus eliminating the chance of a candidate being victimized by electors who refused to go along with the popular choice.

PROPORTIONAL ELECTORAL VOTING: This proposal would allocate electoral votes in proportion to the popular vote received by each candidate in each state.

Under this plan, Nixon would have received 234 electoral votes to 224 for Humphrey and 80 for Wallace, almost exactly matching his percentage of popular vote and 36 short of an electoral majority.

Proportioned distribution lacks precision particularly in smaller states, if only whole electoral votes—not fractions—are allocated. The mathematics are such that in a two-man race in a state with four electoral votes, one candidate would need nearly 63 per cent of the popular vote for the electoral votes to do anything but split 2-2. In Arkansas this year, for example, each candidate would have received two of the state's six electoral votes even though Wallace polled 39 per cent of the popular vote to 31 per cent for Nixon and 30 per cent for Humphrey.

In proportional voting, a third candidate has a fair chance of picking off votes in big states even though he badly trails the other candidates. Wallace polled only 7 per cent of the California popular vote, but would have gotten three of the state's 40 electoral votes.

DISTRICT ELECTORAL VOTING: The most common form of this proposal would give one electoral vote to the popular vote winner in each congressional district, with a bonus of two votes to the statewide winner.

The bonus votes preserve the same degree of overweighted representation for small states already contained in the present system.

Nixon carried 225 congressional districts, Humphrey 163 plus the District of Columbia, and Wallace 47. Adding in the bonus electors for states won would have given Nixon 289 votes, a majority, Humphrey 192, and Wallace 57. That's 13 less than Nixon got under the existing system. Humphrey would have gained 12, Wallace 12.

The district system would make little difference from the present method in most small states, where congressional districts cover large areas. An larger and more diversified states, the district plan would more closely recognize these differences, but like the present winner-take-all system the margin of victory would make no difference. A congressional district carried by one vote would be worth the same electorally as one carried by 100,000 votes.

The district system in most cases would dilute the bloc power of the more diverse big states. In California, for example, Nixon carried 21 districts and Humphrey 17; Illinois was Nixon 14, Humphrey 10.

POPULAR VOTING: Under this plan, the candidate with the most votes would win. The number of states carried would become irrelevant. Some proposals include a runoff election between the top two candidates if no candidate in a field of three or more gets some minimum percentage, such as 40 per cent. Nixon would have won under this plan, since he polled more than 40 per cent despite the third party candidacy of Wallace.

Some persons fear that one suspect city or county could swing the entire national vote in an extremely close election, whereas under any of the Electoral College proposals, one fraud-ridden area can only affect one state. The counter argument is, of course, that an electoral election could hinge on that state.

On the other hand, the 8,000 votes some Republicans contend were stolen from Nixon in the 1960 election in Illinois were enough to give John F. Kennedy that state but were nowhere nearly enough to swing the entire national popular vote although Kennedy's edge of 119,000 votes was one of history's closest.

With direct popular vote, the small states would lose their present over-representation but the big states would tend to lose their bloc power.

A popular or proportional system would change some of the nature of presidential campaigning because either would make it worthwhile for a candidate to go into areas where he had no chance of winning.

Nixon, for example, had no chance of carrying Alabama against Wallace, so there was no point in campaigning there because he could get no electoral votes. But the nearly 150,000 popular votes Nixon got in running a bad third in Alabama equaled nearly half of his popular vote margin over Humphrey in the country as a whole.

Likewise, candidates would find it worthwhile to go for every last vote in a safe area rather than be just as satisfied with a 55 per cent margin as 65 per cent.

Popular voting, even with a minimum percentage victory requirement, seemingly would tend to discourage third party candidates. The man finishing third would have no tangible bargaining tool in event of a deadlock since the leading candidates would simply run in another election.

The biggest problem facing electoral reformers is to agree on one plan. Even with unity, they face a rugged struggle in state legislatures; without unity, it's unlikely any plan could muster enough support to get through Congress.

Various Electoral College Reform Plans Analyzed

By DICK BARNES
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard M. Nixon would have failed to get an Electoral College majority if the presidential election had been held under one of the electoral reform plans most often suggested.

The president-elect would have narrowly led Hubert H. Humphrey—but would not have had a majority—if each state's electoral college votes had been divided proportionately rather than going to one candidate on a winner-take-all basis.

Under some versions of this proposed reform, that plurality would have been sufficient to elect Nixon. But under others, lack of a majority would have thrown the election to the House of Representatives—an eventuality that most reform plans aim at avoiding.

Nixon would have won a slight majority if electoral votes had been allocated on a congressional district basis, another suggested alternative to the Electoral College. But his margin would have been smaller than the majority he actually got under the present system.

These theoretical results were compiled from virtually complete but unofficial election returns.

The other major reform plan would abolish the Electoral College, which has been in use since 1804, and elect the president by direct popular vote. Nixon also would have won under this system.

Proposals for election reform traditionally spring up in the wake of close elections. Reformers argue that the existing machinery may one day elect a president who is not the popular choice—or may break down entirely and produce no president except after prolonged wheeling and dealing.

With a third major candidate in the field—as was George C. Wallace this time—the chances for an indecisive verdict appear to multiply.

Hearings are planned by the Senate constitutional revision subcommittee on how to improve the election procedure and eliminate the chance of constitutional crisis. The subcommittee chairman, Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., is a leading advocate of direct popular election of the president.

If the present system is to be changed, the Constitution must be amended. That means the Senate and House must each, by two-thirds vote of its membership, settle on a single reform plan. Then it must be ratified by the legislatures of 38 states.

There are numerous arguments for and against the present Electoral College and each suggested substitute. Even within each broad reform plan there are arguments over how the fine print should read.

Here's a look at each principal system, the characteristics that stir debate about it, and how it works when the 1968 election results are plugged in.

The existing system: Each state has as many votes in the Electoral College as it has representatives and senators in Congress. The District of Columbia has three. All of a state's votes are cast by electors announced as favorable to the candidate who wins the most popular votes in the state, although only 16 states and the district require their electors to follow the voters' choice. A majority of the electoral votes—270 of 538 this year—is required for election. If there is no majority, the House of Representatives elects the president.

Nixon won the popular vote in 32 states, giving him 302 electoral votes—a majority. Humphrey won 13 states and the District of Columbia for 191 electoral votes. Wallace won five states worth 45 votes.

Despite a better than 3-to-2 electoral edge over Humphrey, Nixon won the popular balloting by less than 350,000 votes out of 72 million cast. His 44 per cent of the popular vote was good for 56 per cent of the electoral vote; Humphrey got 43 per cent of the popular vote but only 36 per cent of the electoral; Wallace won 13 per cent popular, 9 per cent electoral.

The Electoral College originally was seen as a body of the elite who would rationally debate the merits of presidential candidates and pick the best man—a task not trusted to the ordinary voter in the old days of poor communication, transportation and education. The winner-take-all system for each state evolved as states sought to maximize their power rather than have a divided delegation that canceled itself out.

Smaller states have a stronger voice per capita in the college than bigger states because the number of electors is based partly on membership in the Senate—where population is not a factor. For example, Virginia is five times as populous as Rhode Island and has 10 congressmen to Rhode Island's two. But adding the senators gives Virginia 12 electoral votes to Rhode Island's 4—only three times as many.

On the other hand, candidates still key their campaigns to big states such as California, where voters determine the selection of 40 electors, instead of states like Vermont with only three votes in the Electoral College.

A candidate could theoretically get on the ballot in the 12 biggest states, carry each by a margin of one vote and be elected, even if he didn't get a single vote in the rest of the country.

In actual practice, three winners of the popular vote have failed to be elected president. Grover Cleveland outpolled Benjamin Harrison in 1888 and Samuel Tilden won more popular votes than Rutherford B. Hayes in 1876 only to lose in the Electoral College. In 1824, Andrew Jackson led John Quincy Adams in both popular and electoral votes, but did not have an electoral majority. The election went to the House with elected Adams.

One minor reform plan would require that electoral votes be cast automatically for each state's winner, thus eliminating the chance of a candidate being victimized by electors who refused to go along with the popular choice.

PROPORTIONAL ELECTORAL VOTING: This proposal would allocate electoral votes in proportion to the popular vote received by each candidate in each state.

Under this plan, Nixon would have received 234 electoral votes to 224 for Humphrey and 80 for Wallace, almost exactly matching his percentage of popular vote and 36 short of an electoral majority.

Proportioned distribution lacks precision particularly in smaller states, if only whole electoral votes—not fractions—are allocated. The mathematics are such that in a two-man race in a state with four electoral votes, one candidate would need nearly 63 per cent of the popular vote for the electoral votes to do anything but split 2-2. In Arkansas this year, for example, each candidate would have received two of the state's six electoral votes even though Wallace polled 39 per cent of the popular vote to 31 per cent for Nixon and 30 per cent for Humphrey.

In proportional voting, a third candidate has a fair chance of picking off votes in big states even though he badly trails the other candidates. Wallace polled only 7 per cent of the California popular vote, but would have gotten three of the state's 40 electoral votes.

DISTRICT ELECTORAL VOTING: The most common form of this proposal would give one electoral vote to the popular vote winner in each congressional district, with a bonus of two votes to the statewide winner.

The bonus votes preserve the same degree of overweighted representation for small states already contained in the present system.

Nixon carried 225 congressional districts, Humphrey 163 plus the District of Columbia, and Wallace 47. Adding in the bonus electors for states won would have given Nixon 289 votes, a majority, Humphrey 192, and Wallace 57. That's 13 less than Nixon got under the existing system. Humphrey would have gained 12, Wallace 12.

The district system would make little difference from the present method in most small states, where congressional districts cover large areas. In larger and more diversified states, the district plan would more closely recognize these differences, but like the present winner-take-all system the margin of victory would make no difference. A congressional district carried by one vote would be worth the same electorally as one carried by 100,000 votes.

The district system in most cases would dilute the bloc power of the more diverse big states. In California, for example, Nixon carried 21 districts and Humphrey 17; Illinois was Nixon 14, Humphrey 10.

POPULAR VOTING: Under this plan, the candidate with the most votes would win. The number of states carried would become irrelevant. Some proposals include a runoff election between the top two candidates if no candidate in a field of three or more gets some minimum percentage, such as 40 per cent. Nixon would have won under this plan, since he polled more than 40 per cent despite the third party candidacy of Wallace.

Some persons fear that one suspect city or county could swing the entire national vote in an extremely close election, whereas under any of the Electoral College proposals, one fraud-ridden area can only affect one state. The counter argument is, of course, that an electoral election could hinge on that state.

On the other hand, the 8,000 votes some Republicans contend were stolen from Nixon in the 1960 election in Illinois were enough to give John F. Kennedy that state but were nowhere nearly enough to swing the entire national popular vote although Kennedy's edge of 119,000 votes was one of history's closest.

With direct popular vote, the small states would lose their present over-representation but the big states would tend to lose their bloc power.

A popular or proportional system would change some of the nature of presidential campaigning because either would make it worthwhile for a candidate to go into areas where he had no chance of winning.

Nixon, for example, had no chance of carrying Alabama against Wallace, so there was no point in campaigning there because he could get no electoral votes. But the nearly 150,000 popular votes Nixon got in running a bad third in Alabama equaled nearly half of his popular vote margin over Humphrey in the country as a whole.

Likewise, candidates would find it worthwhile to go for every last vote in a safe area rather than be just as satisfied with a 55 per cent margin as 65 per cent.

Popular voting, even with a minimum percentage victory requirement, seemingly would tend to discourage third party candidates. The man finishing third would have no tangible bargaining tool in event of a deadlock since the leading candidates would simply run in another election.

The biggest problem facing electoral reformers is to agree on one plan. Even with unity, they face a rugged struggle in state legislatures; without unity, it's unlikely any plan could muster enough support to get through Congress.

Council Of Garden Clubs Holds Annual Guest Tea

Council of Pickaway County Garden Clubs, composed of Ashville, Circleville, Commercial Point, Derby, Deercreek Monrovia, Logan Elm and Solon, held its annual Guest Meeting and Tea 1:30 p.m. Friday in the Service Center of Good Shepherd United Methodist Church.

Mrs. W. E. Gibson, president, extended greetings and opened the business session with the poem "Thanksgiving." Reports were given by Miss Katherine Decker and Mrs. Donald H. Watt.

Mrs. Nelson Hickman, regional director of District 9, of the Assn. spoke briefly on the organization's future plans.

Registering were 54 members and their guests. Door prize winners were Mrs. Russell Beckett, Mrs. Watt, Mrs. Jeannette Maxson, Mrs. Luella Morris, Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. Harry Smith, Mrs. Howard Koch, Miss Katherine Decker, Mrs. Ethel Furniss, Mrs. Carolyn Sheets, Mrs. T. Pontius, Mrs. Rose Kahler, Mrs. Mae Delay, Mrs. Hickman and Mrs. Glenn Fausnaugh.

Mrs. Bernard Savy, program chairman, introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Joseph Phillips of Logan where she is a member of the Hocking Valley Garden Club. Her program was presented in three parts. The first was a talk which she accompanied with colored slides, entitled "Lilies In My Garden." The second was "The Legends of the Madonna." The many types of Madonnas she has collected from various countries were the center of the arrangements shown. The legend of each flower used were quotes from the Bible. The third portion was "Flower Quips and Quotes." She related her experiences in flower shows and the comedy angle was displayed in the arrangements shown.

Mrs. Donald Watt served as general chairman for the host Circleville Club. The Deercreek Club provided the name labels for each individual.

Concluding the program, all were invited to the lace covered tea table with a large arrangement of yellow single chrysanthemums, made by William Cook, club president.

The Logan Elm Club will host the spring meeting of the clubs.

If you want that oven-fried chicken to be on the crisp side, try baking it in a hot (425 degrees) oven.

La Sertoma Club Plans Sponsorship

Circleville LaSertoma Club met recently in the home of Mrs. Judy Davis, 250 Walnut Creek Pike.

The meeting was opened with invocation by Mrs. Marge Sealock and members repeating the Pledge of Allegiance. The Club elected to take the Brookings School for Retarded Children as a sponsorship, giving them parties and gifts throughout the year. A donation in the amount of $25.00 will be made to the Stephen Kneec Fund.

A Christmas party for the children of LaSertomans will be held Dec. 12, starting at 4 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Marge Sealock, 210 Meadow Drive.

Members present were Mrs. Barbara Metz, Mrs. Nancy Lewis, Mrs. Betty Stevenson, Mrs. Mary Jane Skinner, Mrs. Esther Reed, Mrs. Judy George, Mrs. Sealock and Mrs. Davis. The meeting was closed by members repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison. Refreshments were then served by Mrs. Sealock and Mrs. Davis.

The next meeting will be Dec. 17 at Mrs. Sealock's home. There will be a Christmas gift exchange.

Shiny Gorgeous Gourds Top-Seeded Decor Note

By ELEANOR ROSS

Bright shiny gourds are pleasantly festive as a table centerpiece during the fall and winter. Or you can place the gourds in a gaily colored string basket and suspend them on a wall. Just make sure that the gourd is ripe before cutting it from the vine — using a knife or clippers and leaving an inch or two of stem.

Wash your gourd harvest (or the store bought ones; carefully in sudsy water, rinse, and dry carefully. Then set the gourds aside until completely dry inside — so dry that the seeds rattle when the gourds are shaken, maracas fashion. Comes The Coating

Dust the shells, wipe them with a sudsy sponge, wipe off every last bit of moisture, and coat them with thin white shellac. Repeat with a second shellac coat, apply liquid floor wax; then polish the treated gourds to a high gloss.

Gourds were once literally the basis of building a national currency. When King Henri Christophe set up his exotic reign on the island of Haiti some 165 years ago, he faced a barren treasury. Years of warfare against Napoleon's troops had completely ruined the economy of the once-rich colony, and the freed slaves had so little money that taxation was impossible.

Royal Decision

Christophe looked around for something that his people could simply not do without — and decided on gourds because these hardy plants were used as kitchen utensils, dinnerware, water-basins, and drinking vessels. By gathering in the entire gourd harvest and piling it in his empty treasury, he had a commodity that every person on the island had to buy somehow.

To this day, paper currency in that tropical republic is called the "gourde" note — evidence of how really valuable these hard-shelled fruits can be.

Legion Auxiliary Slates Session

Auxiliary of Circleville American Legion Post 134 will meet 8 p.m. Monday in the Post Home, Route 23 South. Members are reminded to bring commercially canned goods for Thanksgiving baskets for needy families.

White Strike Over

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Officials of White Superior Division of White Motor Corp. and negotiators for office workers reached agreement on a new contract Sunday, ending a 12-week strike by 825 employees. Normal operations were to be resumed today.

Junior Women Expand Club's Scholarships

The November meeting of the Circleville Junior Women's Club was held in the home of Mrs. Richard Theis, 574 Oakland Terrace.

Mrs. Robert Holycross announced that the Pumpkin Pie Booth had been highly successful with a total of 3142 pies sold during Pumpkin Show.

Members voted to expand the club's annual scholarship program by allowing a recipient to renew her scholarship as well as awarding a $500 freshman scholarship.

A Block Mother program for elementary school children is being initiated. The club is presently setting up such a program for Atwater School. The club will also help the Cliftona Theater prepare for its reopening by cleaning seats, etc.

It was announced that the club would go caroling at the various homes for the aged during its December meeting.

Mrs. Michael Bruno, an economist, spoke to the group about "Balance of Payments." Refreshments were served by Mrs. Wayne Hatfield and Mrs. John Eshelman Jr.

How Weather Looks Today

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Weather bureau summary for Ohio:

Skies were clear over most of the state during the night. Clouds persisted only in the northeast, close to Lake Erie.

Cooler air will continue to spread over the state today, but its effect will be offset greatly by the widespread sunshine.

Temperatures will fall into the 20s over much of the state tonight as skies remain clear. Indications are for a low pressure area to develop in the central plains today and tonight, probably moving through the lower Great Lakes Tuesday night and Wednesday. Cloudiness will increase rapidly over the state on Tuesday, closely followed by intermittent rain.

FORECASTS

OHIO—Variable cloudiness extreme northeast and mostly sunny elsewhere today, in the 40s north and lower 50s south. Clear and cold again tonight, low in middle 20s to lower 30s. Mostly cloudy Tuesday with occasional rain by late afternoon and little temperature change.

NORTHWEST OHIO — Clear and cold again tonight, low in the upper 20s. Increasing cloudiness Tuesday morning followed by occasional rain.

SOUTHWEST OHIO — Clear and cool again tonight, low 27-32. Continued warm on Tuesday with increasing cloudiness in the morning followed by occasional rain.

CENTRAL, EAST CENTRAL, SOUTHEAST OHIO — Clear and cold tonight, low in the middle to upper 20s. Increasing cloudiness Tuesday with occasional rain by late afternoon and not much change in temperature.

AAUW Will Meet

Circleville Branch of American Assn. of University Women will meet 8 p.m. Tuesday in the social rooms of First Presbyterian Church.

The program will be presented by Mrs. Thomas Sackinger and Mrs. Allen Berger.

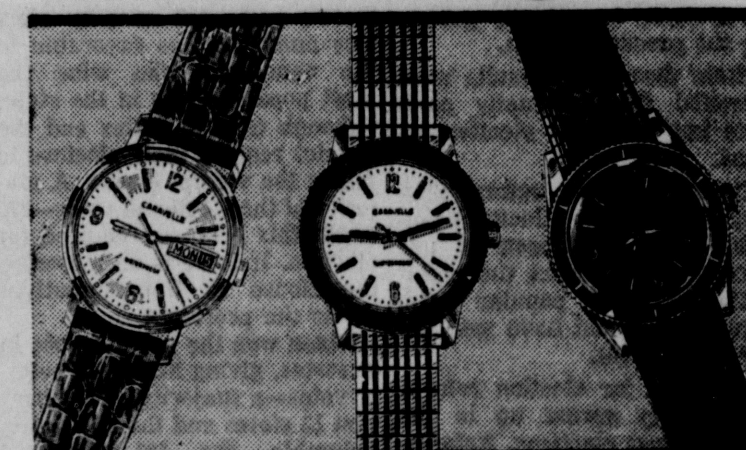

Hostesses will be Mrs. Edward Sward, chairman; Mrs. Robert Peet, Mrs. Ralph Starkey, Mrs. Louis Marcy and Mrs. Ralph Dunkel.

Council of Pickaway County Garden Clubs, composed of Ashville, Circleville, Commercial Point, Derby, Deer Creek Monrovia, Logan Elm and Solana, held its annual Guest Meeting and Tea 1:30 p.m. Friday in the Service Center of Good Shepherd United Methodist Church.

Mrs. W. E. Gibson, president, extended greetings and opened the business session with the poem "Thanksgiving." Reports were given by Miss Katherine Decker and Mrs. Donald H. Watt.

Mrs. Nelson Hickman, regional director of District 9, of the Assn. spoke briefly on the organization's future plans.

Registering were 54 members and their guests. Door prize winners were Mrs. Russell Beckett, Mrs. Watt, Mrs. Jeannette Maxson, Mrs. Luella Morris, Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. Harry Smith, Mrs. Howard Koch, Miss Katherine Decker, Mrs. Ethel Furniss, Mrs. Carolyn Sheets, Mrs. T. Pontius, Mrs. Rose Kahler, Mrs. Mae Delay, Mrs. Hickman and Mrs. Glenn Fausnaugh.

Mrs. Bernard Savoy, program chairman, introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Joseph Phillips of Logan where she is a member of the Hocking Valley Garden Club. Her program was presented in three parts. The first was a talk which she accompanied with colored slides, entitled "Lilies In My Garden." The second was "The Legends of the Madonna." The many types of Madonnas she has collected from various countries were the center of the arrangements shown. The legend of each flower used were quotes from the Bible. The third portion was "Flower Quips and Quotes." She related her experiences in flower shows and the comedy angle was displayed in the arrangements shown.

Mrs. Donald Watt served as general chairman for the host Circleville Club. The Deer Creek Club provided the name labels for each individual.

Concluding the program, all were invited to the lace covered tea table with a large arrangement of yellow single chrysanthemums, made by William Cook, club president.

The Logan Elm Club will host the spring meeting of the clubs.

If you want that oven-fried chicken to be on the crisp side, try baking it in a hot (425 degrees) oven.

La Sertoma Club Plans Sponsorship

Circleville LaSertoma Club met recently in the home of Mrs. Judy Davie, 250 Walnut Creek Pike.

The meeting was opened with invocation by Mrs. Marge Sealock and members repeating the Pledge of Allegiance. The Club elected to take the Brookings School for Retarded Children as a sponsorship, giving them parties and gifts throughout the year. A donation in the amount of $25.00 will be made to the Stephen Kneese Fund.

A Christmas party for the children of LaSertomans will be held Dec. 12, starting at 4 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Marge Sealock, 210 Meadow Drive.

Members present were Mrs. Barbara Metz, Mrs. Nancy Lewis, Mrs. Betty Stevenson, Mrs. Mary Jane Skinner, Mrs. Esther Reed, Mrs. Judy George, Mrs. Sealock and Mrs. Davie. The meeting was closed by members repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison. Refreshments were then served by Mrs. Sealock and Mrs. Davie.

The next meeting will be Dec. 17 at Mrs. Sealock's home. There will be a Christmas gift exchange.

Shiny Gorgeous Gourds Top-Seeded Decor Note

By ELEANOR ROSS

Bright shiny gourds are pleasantly festive as a table centerpiece during the fall and winter. Or you can place the gourds in a gaily colored string basket and suspend them on a wall. Just make sure that the gourd is ripe before cutting it from the vine — using a knife or clippers and leaving an inch or two of stem.

Wash your gourd harvest (or the store bought ones; carefully in sudsy water, rinse, and dry carefully. Then set the gourds aside until completely dry inside — so dry that the seeds rattle when the gourds are shaken, maracas fashion.

Comes The Coating
Dust the shells, wipe them with a sudsy sponge, wipe off every last bit of moisture, and coat them with thin white shellac. Repeat with a second shellac coat, apply liquid floor wax; then polish the treated gourds to a high gloss.

Gourds were once literally the basis of building a national currency. When King Henri Christophe set up his exotic reign on the island of Haiti some 165 years ago, he faced a barren treasury. Years of warfare against Napoleon's troops had completely ruined the economy of the once-rich colony, and the freed slaves had so little money that taxation was impossible.

Royal Decision

Christophe looked around for something that his people could simply not do without — and decided on gourds because these hardy plants were used as kitchen utensils, dinnerware, water-basins, and drinking vessels. By gathering in the entire gourd harvest and piling it in his empty treasury, he had a commodity that every person on the island had to buy somehow.

To this day, paper currency in that tropical republic is called the "gourde" note — evidence of how really valuable these hard-shelled fruits can be.

Junior Women Expand Club's Scholarships

The November meeting of the Circleville Junior Women's Club was held in the home of Mrs. Richard Theis, 574 Oakland Terrace.

Mrs. Robert Holycross announced that the Pumpkin Pie Booth had been highly successful with a total of 3142 pies sold during Pumpkin Show.

Members voted to expand the club's annual scholarship program by allowing a recipient to renew her scholarship as well as awarding a $500 freshman scholarship.

A Block Mother program for elementary school children is being initiated. The club is presently setting up such a program for Atwater School. The club will also help the Cliftona Theater prepare for its reopening by cleaning seats, etc.

It was announced that the club would go caroling at the various homes for the aged during its December meeting.

Mrs. Michael Bruno, an economist, spoke to the group about "Balance of Payments." Refreshments were served by Mrs. Wayne Hatfield and Mrs. John Eshelman Jr.

Personals

The Rev. and Mrs. O. L. Ferguson of 627 Clinton St., were dinner guests on Friday of Mr. and Mrs. McClellan Clark, 410 Fay Ave. The occasion celebrated the birthdays of Rev. Ferguson who was 82 and Mr. Clark, who was 78.

How Weather Looks Today

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Weather bureau summary for Ohio:

Skies were clear over most of the state during the night. Clouds persisted only in the northeast, close to Lake Erie.

Cooler air will continue to spread over the state today, but its effect will be offset greatly by the widespread sunshine.

Temperatures will fall into the 20s over much of the state tonight as skies remain clear. Indications are for a low pressure area to develop in the central plains today and tonight, probably moving through the lower Great Lakes Tuesday night and Wednesday. Cloudiness will increase rapidly over the state on Tuesday, closely followed by intermittent rain.

FORECASTS

OHIO—Variable cloudiness extreme northeast and mostly sunny elsewhere today, in the 40s north and lower 50s south. Clear and cold again tonight, low in middle 20s to lower 30s. Mostly cloudy Tuesday with occasional rain by late afternoon and little temperature change.

NORTHWEST OHIO — Clear and cold again tonight, low in the upper 20s. Increasing cloudiness Tuesday morning followed by occasional rain.

SOUTHWEST OHIO — Clear and cool again tonight, low 27-32. Continued warm on Tuesday with increasing cloudiness in the morning followed by occasional rain.

CENTRAL, EAST CENTRAL, SOUTHEAST OHIO — Clear and cold tonight, low in the middle to upper 20s. Increasing cloudiness Tuesday with occasional rain by late afternoon and not much change in temperature.

AAUW Will Meet

Circleville Branch of American Assn. of University Women will meet 8 p.m. Tuesday in the social rooms of First Presbyterian Church.

The program will be presented by Mrs. Thomas Sackinger and Mrs. Allen Berger.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Edward Sward, chairman; Mrs. Robert Peet, Mrs. Ralph Starkey, Mrs. Louis Marcy and Mrs. Ralph Dunkel.

College Campuses In Turmoil

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Police stood by at two of the nation's college campuses today and classes were suspended at a third following incidents of violence and demonstrations over Negro students' demands.
Officials at 18,000-student San Francisco State College called again for resumption of normal classes after some 200 young militants invaded classrooms and scuffled with armed police Thursday.
The president of racially tense Bluefield State College in Bluefield, W. Va., suspended classes for its 1,450 students today and Saturday after a bomb damaged the new physical education building Thursday night.
In Oshkosh, Wis., reinforced police patrolled 11,000-student Oshkosh State University overnight after demonstrators wrecked offices in an administration building. An estimated 102 students were arrested.

The vandalism broke out after university president Roger Guiles refused to sign a list of demands presented to him by a Negro delegation. They included hiring of Negro instructors, more courses in Negro culture and a separate student union for Negroes.
Those arrested comprise nearly all of the university's Negro enrollment. White students and the Rev. James E. Groppi, sought later to organize support for those in custody.
Groppi, a white Roman Catholic priest who is a familiar figure in civil rights campaigns, came from Milwaukee to arrange bail for the students. Charges included disorderly conduct, destruction of property and unlawful assembly.

At San Francisco State the demands of the strikers, including of a Black Panther member other groups, are for the rehiring from the faculty for advising Negro students to carry guns on campus and the creation of a black students department.

Classes were held Thursday night and college president Robert D. Smith termed afternoon attendance "very good" in several departments. Three students were arrested.
The bomb at Bluefield State ripped through the walls and roof of the new building. College security officer Lloyd Davis said the explosive, apparently in a paper bag, could have been "six or seven sticks of dynamite."

Women Obey Driving Laws Better Except For Yielding

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)
—Women drivers obey the laws better than men, a survey shows, with one exception: Women are more stubborn about yielding the right of way.
The California Highway Patrol, after completing a survey of 1967 traffic accidents involving death or injury, said Thursday 42 per cent of the state's drivers are females. But of all death or injury accidents involving women, more than 28 per cent involved failure to yield right-of-way.

Only 19.5 per cent of the men violated right-of-way rules.
From there on, however, the ladies had all the best of it:
—Of men involved in such accidents, 23 per cent had been drinking —against 9.6 per cent for the women.
—One third of the men were driving too fast, one fourth of the women.
—Of 101 drivers involved in an accident while passing on a curve, 15 were women.
Going further, the patrol looked into bicycle accidents.
Some 3,000 males were injured on bicycles in the state in 1967 and 34 were killed, compared with 662 females injured and 11 killed.
The report concluded:
Men and boys, because of their activities and proclivities, have more accidents than women and girls."

A CROSS TO BEAR—Nearly blown away by high winds a week earlier, a cross dangles 220 feet above the street in New York as steeplejack Edward Borden rises to the occasion over Immanuel Evangelical Lutheran Church. He accomplished his mission.

Gold Control Problem
NEW DELHI (AP)—A member of Parliament claimed that more than 11,000 Indian goldsmiths have committed suicide because of a government gold control order.
The regulation prohibits the manufacture of 24-carat jewelry in an attempt to cut down gold hoarding, and has therefore cut into Indian goldsmiths' business.

"Cube" by orange blossom
This is a ring for the girl who doesn't mind standing out in the crowd. The girl who chooses it will probably be as unusual and distinctive in her taste as the setting itself. It's beautiful geometry; five diamonds set in each side of an 18K gold cube above a broad, bold band. And if the ring seems unique, so is its guarantee. If you should ever want a larger diamond later on, Orange Blossom will exchange it for its full purchase price. Now for the first time, a diamond is really forever.

Democratic Coalition Sets Party Reform From Inside

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The new Democratic Coalition, making reform of the Democratic party's machinery one of its first goals, has commended National Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien for saying he will name two reform committees.

The action Sunday by the coalition's temporary steering committee meeting in St. Louis un-dercored its determination to work within the framework of the Democratic party.

Most members of the steering committee were active in the presidential campaign of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, or Sen. George S. McGovern of South Dakota, and many worked for Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey after his nomination.

The steering committee put off for two months decisions on a more formal national organization, but approved a statement that its main goal is "to transform the Democratic party into a national political instrument which will represent and provide avenues of participation for all citizens."

Noting O'Brien's announcement Saturday that he would soon name the groups to develop new rules for the 1972 Democratic National Convention, the coalition sent him a telegram urging that they be "composed of those who worked to achieve party reform during the (1968) convention and whose membership will signal vigorous and prompt assistance to all states in making changes."

Several members expressed hope O'Brien would appoint Harold E. Hughes, governor of Iowa and a senator-elect, as chairman of the special committee to set guidelines for selecting 1972 delegates. Hughes headed a group whose recommendations on reform led to formation of the coalition.

The telegram also asked O'Brien and Humphrey to meet with the two newly elected co-chairmen of the coalition steering committee, Donald O. Peterson of Wisconsin and Paul Schrade of California.

Peterson led the successful primary fight for McCarthy in Wisconsin, while Schrade, West freeways and use the 20,000 miles of surface streets.

A test of time required to travel 11.7 miles from west Los Angeles to the downtown Civic Center at a rush hour showed: The drive on surface streets took 30 minutes compared to 48 minutes by freeway and 77 minutes by bus.

Man Surrenders In Bank Holdup

CINCINNATI (AP) — A 29-year-old man who surrendered to police Sunday was scheduled to appear today in Criminal Court in connection with the $4,075 holdup of a branch bank here last September.

Police said Kenneth Watkins had four dollars in his pockets when he turned himself in at Central Station and told them he had spent most of the past two months in Georgia and Florida. He was charged with malicious entry of a financial institution.

An all-points bulletin was issued for Watkins' arrest shortly after the Provident Bank branch in east Cincinnati was robbed Sept. 11. Officers said a hidden camera in the bank photographed the robbery and that a getaway car was traced to Watkins.

Dead were Laxton Gamblin, 30, and his 18-month-old son Dejuan.

The other son, Terry, 6, was in serious condition at Marymount Hospital with a gunshot wound in the back of the neck.

Patrolmen Gerald Bandsuh and Hubert Smykowski said Terry was conscious when they arrived Sunday evening and apparently had been walking around his upstairs bedroom because there were bloodstains on the floor.

"I think I've had a bad dream," police quoted him as saying. Then, he added, "I'm hungry."

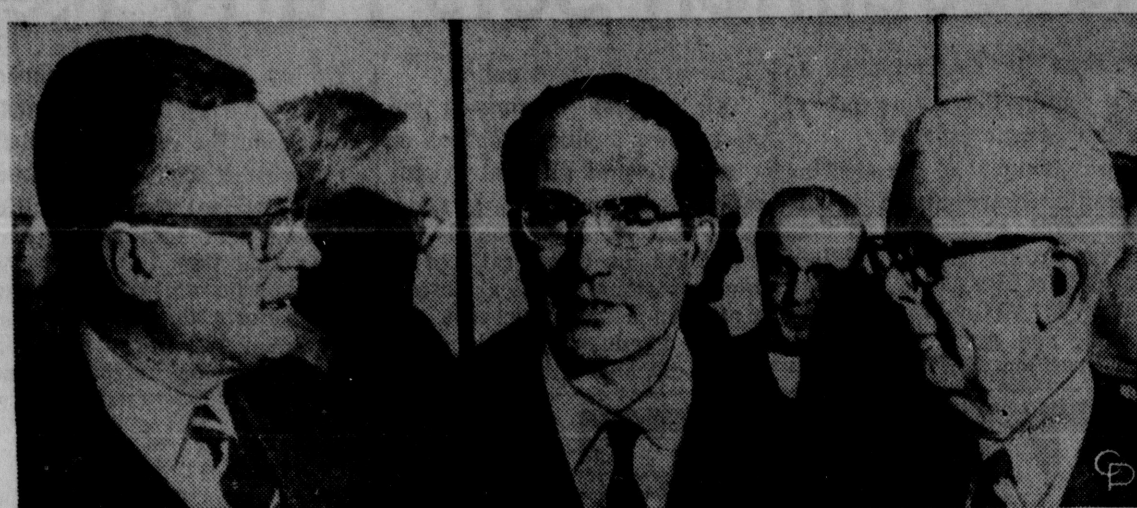

In the same hospital as Terry was his mother Brenda, who is being treated for a nervous breakdown she suffered last week.

House Member Says Powell Should Be Denied His Seat

WASHINGTON (AP) — A member of the select committee that originally investigated Adam Clayton Powell says the House should consider barring the Harlem congressman again. Wisconsin Republican Vernon W. Thomson also questioned in an interview whether the House would obey a Supreme Court order to seat Powell.

"If it should rule that Powell should have been seated, it would create a very serious constitutional impasse," Thomson said. Thomson, who said he was surprised when the high court agreed earlier this month to hear Powell's appeal, added that Congress has the sole right to judge qualifications of its members. Thomson said no move is under way to bar Powell, overwhelmingly re-elected Nov. 5, from the next Congress.

"But," he said, "It seems that a Congress which is talking about improving its image and its ethics would give serious consideration to seating a member who has been charged by a select committee of that body with conduct which is highly unethical if not something more serious."

The select committee recommended in 1967 that the House seat Powell but censure him and require payment of $40,000 he allegedly misused for personal expenses. The House, however, overrode the committee recommendation and excluded Powell from his seat in the 90th congress and stripped him of all seniority.

Hippie Poet Found Dead In Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — D. A. Levy, 25-year-old hippie poet, was found shot to death in his East Cleveland apartment Sunday night and police theorized that he died by his own hand. A .22-caliber, single-shot rifle was found next to the body of Levy, who was the self-styled leader of Cleveland's underground literary movement.

He had been shot once in the middle of the forehead. It would have been a year ago Thursday that Levy was indicted secretly by the Cuyahoga County Grand Jury on charges of publishing and disseminating obscene literature. A U. S. Supreme Court ruling on obscenity charges forced a dismissal of the charges on recommendation of the County

Prosecutor's office. Levy also had been convicted of acting in a way tending to cause the delinquency of a minor and paid a $200 fine. A six-month sentence in the Warrensville Workhouse was suspended. The charges stemmed from a narcotics case. He edited the "Marijuana Quarterly" and a literary magazine, "No. 465."

Readers Send In Broad Definitions

DEAR ABBY: One of your readers asked where the term "Broad" as applied to women come from. I believe I know. It started in Philadelphia during World War I.

When a man who was on Leave and Liberty would inquire as to where to find the "ladies of the night," he was directed to BROAD STREET. The females there were called "BROAD STREET BABES." Later it was shortened to "BROAD STREETERS." Finally it became "BROADS."

I do not want to offend the good people of Philadelphia who presently live on BROAD STREET or the men in service, for that matter, either, but these are the facts.

ANNAPOLIS, MD.
DEAR ABBY: About the word "broad:"

It simply means "female." The adjective PRECEDING determines whether it's an insult or a compliment.

There are dumb broads, cheap broads, ugly broads, and loud-mouthed broads. Just as there are "high class" broads, beautiful broads, good-hearted broads, and smart broads.

Her figure has nothing to do with it. There are fat broads and skinny broads. The word itself has a special favor, however, because a person of taste would never ask his minister if that "broad" in the green hat was his wife.

CORONA, CAL.
DEAR ABBY: During World War II, the Women Marines were affectionately called "BROAD A — MARINES," or "BAMS." They were also referred to as "BROADS." The term was not meant to be derogatory, but it did have something to do with the dimension of the derriere.

Carnegie Won't Accept

NEW YORK (AP) — Carnegie Hall has refused to accept a booking for the Jimi Hendrix Experience.

Mrs. Joana Satescu, booking manager for Carnegie Hall, said, "We have information that in his (Hendrix's) other appearances in other places the audience got very much out of hand. They destroyed furniture and draperies. We cannot afford to take that chance."

The concert promoter offered to post a surety bond and was told that surety could not play Carnegie Hall, even with a surety bond.

Hendrix has booked into Philharmonic Hall in Lincoln Center, for Nov. 28.

Glare Of Publicity Hits Devaluation Discussions

By CARL HARTMAN
Associated Press Writer

BONN, Germany (AP) — Efforts to save the blighted French economy have created a new method of coping with monetary problems.

Devaluations used to be a lone wolf thing—carefully concealed, even lied about until the last moment. Nobody least of all a foreigner, was told anything.

The French move toward devaluation of the franc was conducted in a kind of international goldfish bowl. Representatives of 11 countries and at least two international organizations discussed it for three days.

Now, said the U.S. secretary of the Treasury, Henry H. Fowler: "The day of the narrow, nationalistic, short-range view of international finance has been replaced."

On Friday, it was a bitter gift for the 78th birthday of President Charles de Gaulle, the symbol of every nation's right to go it alone. It was doubly bitter, because he had said that devaluation of the franc would be the "worst possible absurdity."

De Gaulle now is getting international insurance for what remains of French reserves.

They have dipped below $4-billion from a high of $8.7 billion before the destructive strikes and riots last spring and the wage increases that followed.

The insurance comes in the form of a $2 billion fund that France can use, under the watchful eye of its international partners. It will be drawn down if Frenchmen continue to shift their holdings out of francs into other currencies. It will also have to be called on if France can not export as many goods as it buys from abroad.

The 10 or more countries involved will want to know what is happening to their money. They will no doubt have some polite but firm words to say if

Youngstown Bus Opinion Issued

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Although Youngstown's public schools will shut down this week due to lack of funds, the school system still is required to provide bus service for 2,500 parochial school pupils.

"We do not have the cash for busing in December and do not know how we can continue to do this," said School Supt. Woodrow W. Zinser.

They think it is being squandered by unwise policies.

West Germany will be contributing the largest amount—$600 million. The importance of the sum indicates a superior West German position in the world economy.

Foreign Minister Willy Brandt is fond of saying that his country is an "economic giant, but a political dwarf." Reticence born of defeat in World War II has prevented West German leaders from throwing their weight around internationally. Now it may be increasingly felt.

The United States is the second largest contributor to the fund, with $500 million. Lately French-American relations have improved, although officials of both countries are quick to deny that French economic troubles have anything to do with it.

In any case, France is no longer in a position to encourage much speculation against the U.S. dollar, as it was often accused of doing in better French days.

What Price Beauty?

The REVCO PRICE, naturally! (Paying more is ridiculous)

All eyes right with Maybelline at Revco's low, low discount price of 73¢. Yes, only 73¢ for Maybelline's new Brush-On Ultra Shadow (soft brush included.) And only 73¢ for Maybelline's Ultra-Lash Mascara that lengthens and thickens lashes as it colors, curls and separates. Revco's price for Maybelline's waterproof fluid Eye Liner? Only 73¢. (May we now ask if you've been paying $1.00 for each of the above elsewhere?)

What's your favorite lipstick? Your favorite lipstick shade? Do you prefer frosted? Chances are you'll find the right lipstick for you at Revco for only 39¢ each or 3 for $1.00. Wondering about the low price? Well, if these moisture cream lipsticks were made by you-know-who you'd have to pay much, much more. But because they're by Westbury you save a pretty penny. (Your lips will never reveal what you paid.)

PACQUIN INVITES YOU TO SAMPLE THEIR NEW SKIN LOTION WITHOUT CHARGE WHEN YOU PURCHASE THEIR FAMOUS $1.00 HAND CREAM. REVCO MAKES THIS OFFER EVEN MORE INVITING BY PRICING THE DUO AT ONLY 73¢. (NOW THAT SKIN DRYING WEATHER IS HERE, THIS VALUE IS A MUST.)

Here's the make-up that brought about the clean, natural unmade-up look. Cover Girl by Noxzema. Take your choice of liquid, pressed powder or tube in various shades at only $1.27 each. (Are you paying $1.65, the price that's on the package?)

You know the name, Desert Flower. You recognize the value (the 4.00 size for 2.00 and the 2.00 size for 1.00 is clearly printed on the bottles) but leave it to Revco to price this famous Hand & Body Lotion still lower. Our prices are $1.41 for the 16 oz. 4.00 size and 73¢ for the 8 oz. 1.00 size. Now isn't that a beautiful discount.

* Only $2.95 and the label on Lanolin Plus Hair Spray gets you a wiglet of 100% human hair, handmade by experts and matched to your own color. 99¢ Lanolin Plus Hair Spray (Reg. & Hard-to-Hold) for only 59¢.

The long, lovely nails you've always wanted are yours with Hazel Bishop's Fabulous Fakes, fabulously priced at only $1.49. (Compare at $2.00).

Here's a beauty product that really lives up to its name. Happy Hair makes your hair just that. Caryl Richards' non-greasy, absorbable lanolin formula brightens, conditions hair instantly—with just a bit of a spray. The price on the can reads $1.25 but our price is 69¢. How happy can you get.

Local Jaycees Attend State Conference

The November All-State of the Ohio Jaycees held at the Dayton Sheraton Hotel was attended by Asa Elsea, Ernie Lindsey, Tom Elsea and Dr. Robert Liggett of the Circleville organization.

The executive committee meeting on Friday night was attended by Dr. Liggett. Saturday Ernie Lindsey was a judge in records and recognition competition. Four basic sixes were entered from Circleville. Asa Elsea, local president, attended a special president to president meeting with Gordon Thomas, Ohio Jaycee president.

Later Saturday local Jaycees attended a community development seminar conducted by a panel of speakers: Norman Crabtree, Ohio Director of Aviation; Ted Ledbetter, National Urban Coalition; Chester Gillum, Area Development of Dayton Power and Light Co.; and Richard Gerhardt, mayor of Circleville.

Ernie Lindsey, rural urban chairman of the Ohio Jaycees, conducted a programming forum on Ohio's outstanding young farmer project.

The awards Banquet speaker was Adam Walinsky, a former legislative assistant and speech writer for the late Senator Robert Kennedy.

The local delegates to Sunday's trustee meeting were Tom Elsea and Lindsey. Dr. Liggett, state vice president district ten, represented his district at the meeting in which a new state project on international relations was adopted. This project will send machinery to underdeveloped South American countries to build local industry.

SLACKS TOO TIGHT? — Mrs. Wanda Stidham, Nashville, Tenn., postal clerk, stands in the slacks she says her superiors (all men) say are "much too tight" and for which she has been threatened with "disciplinary action." She says she disagrees and will continue to wear them while sorting mail.

University To Have Semester On 1930s

By GARVEN HUDGINS
AP Education Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A leading American university will tell it like it was in a new and unique semester of special courses on the 1930's designed for today's affluent student generation.

The new series of courses, to be offered at the University of Connecticut starting in February, will be something of a response to those shocked critics of the current campus scene who recall hard-pressed college days in the 1930's when there was no time to think about taking over the president's office.

"The Thirties is a decade which means nothing to our students more than a handful of clichés and a sentimental film about Clyde Barrow and Bonnie Parker," says a University of Connecticut spokesman. "Yet these same students, many of whom are intensely alive politically, have much to learn about America and themselves by a deeper knowledge of the Thirties."

Most colleges and universities offer insight into the Thirties era in separate history and economics courses.

What distinguishes the plan at Connecticut is the fact that for one full semester, the university will concentrate all its resources on the 1930's.

There will be studies of the physics of that decade, which produced the huge advances in atomic energy which have so profoundly influenced our age.

The university plans to invite as guest lecturers personalities who gained prominence during the 1930's—including Lyndon B. Johnson.

The English Department, together with the university's library staff, will sponsor seminars involving writers such as Thornton Wilder, Dwight Macdonald, Granville Hicks and John Steinbeck.

There will also be special studies of the Spanish civil war, of the New Deal and of the rise of fascism in Italy and Germany. The journalism, painting, films and radio offerings of the decade also will be studied, along with architecture and philosophy.

Musicians, including the Cleveland Orchestra, will perform works representative of the 1930's in concert appearances on campus. A major portion of a regular art course on Painting of the 20th Century will be devoted to art of the 1930's.

The over-all plan for the semester could dissolve into an exercise in nostalgia. To avoid this, the university, through two years of planning, has carefully structured the program so that academic departments taking part will insure a solid educational foundation for the experiment.

The decade of the 1930's was selected for such close scrutiny, says Connecticut's 42-year-old President Homer Babbidge, "because within that decade lie the beginnings of so many of the problems which today's undergraduate sees as the relevant ones."

A university prospectus on the semester of the 1930's states: "Nothing short of total immersion can succeed in baptizing our students, conveying to them by saturation what it meant to be alive in that turbulent, paradoxical decade of progress and reaction. A decade of poverty has an important message to give to our affluent society."

The Portuguese codfishing armada — 66 ships and 5,400 men — is the world's largest the National Geographic says. The men work 18 hours a day seven days a week. Law decrees time at least six hours sleep.

NEW YORK (AP) — There is something special about an ice show even though it has developed into a form as rigid as a steel beam.

There are the soloists, the boy-and-girl skating duet, the clowns and other acts that consistently show up.

No one has objected to this, and ice shows on television invariably pull big ratings. But NBC's Sunday night special, "Here's Peggy Fleming" which starred the pretty young Olympic gold medalist, refreshingly broke the mold.

It seemed, in fact, that the producers were determined to avoid all ice show clichés. The result was a most imaginative and stimulating hour of television.

There was an interesting version of "How to Handle a Woman," sung by actor Richard Harris against the background of a set of the film "Camelot." Miss Fleming skated around King Arthur's Court. Another off-beat number had her moving serenely around a rink while a wild hockey game was in progress around her.

One of the most effective numbers was an old-fashioned duet with Robert Paul, another Olympic champion. And there was a cute and simpler number with dancer Gene Kelly.

Spanky and Our Gang, an excellent young singing group, and Richard Harris, with an interesting but grim antiwar song, performed away from the ice.

Miss Fleming, now on a professional career, should be as successful as Sonja Henie in her day. It was a program that should have been seen in color to be fully savored.

NBC also presented a pair of specials Saturday night.

The first, "The Mouse on the Mayflower," was a cartoon fantasy with some pleasant musical interludes and some outrageous fiddling around with history that was primarily intended to amuse the younger viewers.

The whimsy involved a Pilgrim church mouse named Willum, who discovered the Pilgrims' ship was in danger of sinking and saved the day, and who found a red mouse in America and thus was able to introduce the Pilgrims to the red men.

While the hour sometimes seemed precious and self-consciously cute, it was mostly for the children.

A singing family named Cowsill—six kids and their mother—were the stars of the second special. The show was crowded into 30 minutes, and that isn't long enough to get into and out of a variety show. The program, apparently designed as a pilot program for a series, tried to project a warm family image, some mild comedy, do a lot of singing and leave time for a guest star, Buddy Ebsen.

The family seemed at ease and was most effective when doing musical numbers. They got into difficulty when they were engaged in stilted and obviously memorized dialogue. Ebsen did a soft-shoe routine with the youngest Cowsill, Susan, 9.

One of the season's really big ones comes along tonight—

Frank Sinatra's special on CBS —9-10 EST—with Dianna Carroll and the singing Fifth Dimension.

Charge Photographer With Trespassing

PEAPACK, N.J. (AP) — A photographer who snapped pictures of Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis as she took a Sunday stroll in the country has been charged with trespassing.

Authorities said Mrs. Onassis complained that she had been frightened by the photographer. Philippe J. C. Poulitopoulos, as she walked alone at the estate where she is staying with her husband and children.

Lady Bird Concludes Tour With Redwood Park Opening

EUREKA, Calif. (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson concludes her final beauty-America pilgrimage as First Lady by dedicating the 58,000-acre Redwood National Park to the happiness of the people.

"For us, this ceremony is the crowning moment of a crusade which has lasted two generations," Mrs. Johnson said.

Her remarks were prepared for the dedication ceremony to day at the foot of a 300-foot-tall redwood in the new national park near Orick, 40 miles north of Eureka in coastal Northern California.

Mrs. Johnson said creation of the park, out of existing California state parks and private timberland, "is one of my husband's proudest achievements."

And she complimented "the great generosity" of big timber companies in helping to create the park, a subject of a bitter, emotional dispute in the area where the economy depends on the redwood logging industry.

From the dedication site above Redwood Creek, Mrs. Johnson and her entourage will visit other areas of the new park, which stretches 40 miles along the Pacific Coast almost to the Oregon state line.

Mrs. Johnson planned to fly later to San Antonio, Tex. and then to the LBJ Ranch, ending a three-day, 6,000 mile tour that included stops at New Orleans, Cape Kennedy, Fla., Denver, Colo., and California.

Incumbent Wins Recount in Clermont

BATAVIA, Ohio (AP) — A vote recount shows that incumbent Robert Jones won the Clermont County prosecutor's race on Nov. 5 by 61 votes.

Unofficial returns gave the race to Jones, but the official count showed that Louis J. Schwartz won by a six-vote margin. The recount over the weekend found errors in all but 29 of 120 precincts.

Stokes Against Nixon Before Term Is Begun

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — Cleveland Mayor Carl B. Stokes says he does not believe the administration of Richard M. Nixon will fulfill the President-elect's promises in solving urban problems.

Stokes, during a press conference before he delivered the George Huntington Williams Memorial lecture at the Johns Hopkins University Sunday said Nixon would change some of his ideas about urban problems.

"I don't believe that Richard Nixon is going to do most of the

Rhodes Writes Of OSU Victory

By JAMES A. RHODES
Governor, State of Ohio
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State's 50-14 victory was the greatest team achievement in the history of the university. Remember, Michigan was fourth-ranked nationally.

Not taking anything away from other great Ohio State teams, this was Ohio State's great team Saturday. Woody Hayes is the Number One Coach in the nation. Woody has two personalities. Every one knows him as the hard-working coach, wearing a short-sleeved shirt, and pacing the sidelines. The public does not see the other Woody Hayes, the "real" Woody Hayes. In the locker room, immediately after his greatest victory, the other Woody Hayes projected itself. I was in the locker room immediately after the final gun sounded. This is my personal observation:

Woody generously and emphatically gave all of the credit to his staff and his team. Woody Hayes is a very humble man.

He poetically eulogized the team for spirit, team play, and fair play. His voice was warm and soft.

Woody deplors dirty football. He talked about building men. He talked about character, manners, and conduct. He continued to discuss the value of clean football.

While Woody was demonstrating great humility, outside, directly below the locker room were thousands of loyal Ohio State followers, shouting and screaming, "We are Number One! We are Number One!"

The tempo increasingly became louder because some followers of the Scarlet and Gray had been waiting a lifetime for a 50-14 victory over Michigan.

The noise of the shouting was reaching to the locker room, so that it was almost impossible to hear much. In the midst of his players stood Woody Hayes. All of the players were standing, too.

Woody held his hand up. He said, "Let us pray."

He asked everybody to bow their heads. They did so with great reverence.

Some prayers are selfish. Not this one.

Woody thanked God for the game of football. He praised God for all of the blessings bestowed on mankind. He prayed for all. He prayed for his foes. He prayed for clean football.

It was a moving scene because the shouts, yelling, and screaming in the background emphasized the true humility of the victors in the foreground.

Stokes Against Nixon Before Term Is Begun

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — Cleveland Mayor Carl B. Stokes says he does not believe the administration of Richard M. Nixon will fulfill the President-elect's promises in solving urban problems.

Stokes, during a press conference before he delivered the George Huntington Williams Memorial lecture at the Johns Hopkins University Sunday said Nixon would change some of his ideas about urban problems.

"I don't believe that Richard Nixon is going to do most of the things he said he was going to do in his campaign," the Democratic mayor said.

Rochester Wins Over Barons, 4-1

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — The Rochester Americans ran their American Hockey League winning streak to five games with a 4-1 victory over the Cleveland Barons Sunday night. John Vanderburg scored the only Cleveland goal.

Stokes also predicted vice president elect Spiro T. Agnew would change.

"I think he's going to grow," Stokes said.

"Congress is really going to decide what is going to happen in the next four years."

Rhodes Writes Of OSU Victory

By JAMES A. RHODES
Governor, State of Ohio
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State's 50-14 victory was the greatest team achievement in the history of the university. Remember, Michigan was fourth-ranked nationally.

Not taking anything away from other great Ohio State teams, this was Ohio State's great team Saturday.

Woody Hayes is the Number One Coach in the nation. Woody has two personalities.

Every one knows him as the hard-working coach, wearing a short-sleeved shirt, and pacing the sidelines. The public does not see the other Woody Hayes, the "real" Woody Hayes.

In the locker room, immediately after his greatest victory, the other Woody Hayes projected itself. I was in the locker room immediately after the final gun sounded. This is my personal observation:

Woody generously and emphatically gave all of the credit to his staff and his team. Woody Hayes is a very humble man.

He poetically eulogized the team for spirit, team play, and fair play. His voice was warm and soft.

Woody deplors dirty football. He talked about building men. He talked about character, manners, and conduct. He continued to discuss the value of clean football.

While Woody was demonstrating great humility, outside, directly below the locker room were thousands of loyal Ohio State followers, shouting and screaming, "We are Number One! We are Number One!"

The tempo increasingly became louder because some followers of the Scarlet and Gray had been waiting a lifetime for a 50-14 victory over Michigan.

The noise of the shouting was reaching to the locker room, so that it was almost impossible to hear much. In the midst of his players stood Woody Hayes. All of the players were standing, too.

Woody held his hand up. He said, "Let us pray."

He asked everybody to bow their heads. They did so with great reverence.

Some prayers are selfish. Not this one.

Woody thanked God for the game of football. He praised God for all of the blessings bestowed on mankind. He prayed for all. He prayed for his foes. He prayed for clean football.

It was a moving scene because the shouts, yelling, and screaming in the background emphasized the true humility of the victors in the foreground.

In his greatest hour, Coach Woody Hayes demonstrated his feeling and concern for others.

He is a kind and considerate person. He is dedicated and devoted to God, Country, and Ohio State, and to his staff, and especially his team.

If I had a son and he was a college prospect, I would want him to play for Woody Hayes at Ohio State.

As a matter of fact, I believe all of our Ohio athletes should attend a college or university in Ohio.

This is the greatest state in the Union.

Tigers Edged By Chillicothe, 63-59

Circleville was downed by Chillicothe, 63-59, Saturday, but not before the Tigers had given the Cavaliers from Chillicothe more than they had bargained.

It was a far cry from last year when Chillicothe beat the Tigers, 106-48.

The Red and Black trailed almost the entire game, but did manage to pull ahead, 59-57, with 1:36 in the game. However, they succumbed to the superior height of Chillicothe in the closing minutes.

Chillicothe started a 6-6 center, Greg Juricisin. At one forward post the Cavaliers had 6-4 Jim Johnson. At the other forward berth was 6-3 Dave Stone.

It was a wild, exciting game from the opening tip to the final buzzer. Circleville's new scrambling run and shoot offense promises to give the Tiger fans a thrill a second, and its going to add more than one gray hair to the heads of opposing coaches both in and out of the league.

"I was proud of the boys tonight," new Coach Garold Sowders said after the game.

"Last night I was worried. I think they were actually afraid of Chillicothe."

After Saturday's performance it's doubtful if the Tigers will be afraid of anybody. They are not likely to meet a team again this season with Chillicothe's overall size and strength, nor a team that can run as well as the Cavaliers did.

Chillicothe's Jack Berno scored the first point of the game nine seconds after the opening tip on a foul shot. The visitors led for the rest of the first period, although never more than by five points.

When the quarter ended, the score was 14-11. In the second quarter, Circleville was able to gain the lead when Dave Hopkins hit a jump shot from the top of the key to make the score 17-16. Hopkins came right back with a steal and drove in for a layup and Circleville was ahead by three.

CHILICOTHE and Circleville traded baskets until the final two minutes of the half when Chillicothe began to pull ahead again. By halftime, the Cavaliers had widened the margin to seven points, 32-25.

With 3:32 to go in the third quarter, Randy Halley was able to tie the score for Circleville, sinking a pair of charity tosses for a 37-all game.

But Chillicothe chalked up seven straight points before the Tigers could get in gear again and the quarter ended with the visitors ahead, 48-43.

At the start of the fourth quarter, Ty Ankrum canned four straight foul shots and Halley netted a 25 foot jumper while the visitors were scoring one field goal to narrow the margin to 50-49.

Chillicothe scored four points to make the spread five. Dave Horst drove in to make the score 54-51, but again the Cavaliers were able to counter with a two point bucket to hold the five point lead.

Circleville rallied with three points on foul shots by Hopkins and Ankrum and Chillicothe scored one point at the charity stripe.

Then Horst canned the field goal that made it a 56-57 ball game and Ty Ankrum put Circleville ahead 58-57. With 1:36 showing on the clock, Hopkins made a foul shot for a 59-57 margin.

But the last six points of the game were scored by Chillicothe. The last bucket was a tip in as the buzzer sounded.

Chillicothe's height gave them a decided advantage. Several times, they were able to keep the ball in the air on the offensive boards, scoring after the third or fourth tip.

The Tigers had a balanced scoring attack. Dave Hopkins made four field goals and five foul shots for 13 points. Ty Ankrum also made 13 points, nine of them at the charity stripe.

Dave Horst was the leading Tiger scorer with 15 markers on six field goals and three foul shots. Randy Halley notched 12 points, hitting five buckets from the field and two at the foul line.

Charlie Jackson scored six points, all from the field. Coach Sowders started with those five youngsters and never substituted during the game.

Halley, Ankrum and Jackson are all juniors.

GREG Juricisin was the game's leading scorer. The 6-6 center made all 18 of his points from the field.

Chillicothe cagers sank 26 of 72 field goal attempts, a 36 per cent average.

Sowders' scramblers shot 47 times, making 20 for a 43 per cent accuracy rate.

Circleville's program lists Dave Hopkins and Ty Ankrum both as being 6-foot-2 inches tall, but both looked a good three inches shorter than Stone.

It was a wild, exciting game from the opening tip to the final buzzer. Circleville's new scrambling run and shoot offense promises to give the Tiger fans a thrill a second, and its going to add more than one gray hair to the heads of opposing coaches both in and out of the league.

Mustang Quintet Beats Fairfield Union, 66-56

Westfall's basketball Mustangs defeated visiting Fairfield Union, 66-56, Saturday, behind the 23 point scoring effort of Greg Bigam.

The Mustangs held a comfortable lead throughout almost the entire game, and Coach Paul Hoskins substituted freely in the final quarter.

Bigam scored all eight of his field goals in the second half and added seven buckets from the foul line during the tilt for his game high total.

Senior guard Gene Carfrey chipped in 15 points and junior forward Bob Barnes scored 11. Other Mustangs breaking into the scoring column were Bob Osterle with seven, Bill Blair and Tony Lightle with four each and Rick Maurer with two.

For Fairfield Union, Wells McDonald scored 17 and Steve Sholl 13. Ten of Sholl's points came in the fourth quarter after Hoskins began substituting.

The Mustangs jumped out to a 22-9 lead in the first quarter. After halftime, they led, 33-16. In the third quarter, Westfall added 15 more points for a 48-33 score.

Westfall cagers hit 24 of 57 shots from the field, a 42 per cent average. At the charity stripe they connected on 18 of 25 attempts, a 72 per cent rate.

Fairfield Union was forced into 25 turnovers by Westfall's pressing man to man defense. According to Mustang chart-keepers, Westfall was able to capitalize on the mistakes for 25 points.

Westfall had 14 turnovers in the game, most of them coming in the last quarter.

The Mustang reserves lost the preliminary game, 55-41. Circleville in the Mill St. gymnasium at Circleville Junior High School.

Funny Fellow, Fast Hilarious Win Races

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The weekend thoroughbred race program was a laugh. Not that the winners were any easier to pick. But what else do you call it with Funny Fellow winning the Gallant Fox at Aqueduct and Fast Hilarious taking the Alligator Stakes at Tropical Park.

And, too, there's that situation at Churchill Downs—the gal jockey affair—which may not be funny. But it's certainly unusual.

Penny Ann Early, a 25-year-old divorcee, was granted a jockey's license by the Kentucky Racing Commission but through a chain of circumstances, including a boycott of male riders, she was unable to get a ride before Churchill Downs closed its fall meeting Saturday.

But Miss Early said she would continue her efforts and would go to Latonia in northern Kentucky Thursday and said she has "been assured by some trainers that I'll get a horse."

Many of the same jockeys who rode at Churchill Downs also will be at Latonia, but if they refuse to ride against her again Miss Early said she "definitely will go to court. This time I'm going to press legal action."

Cleve Bryant Gets Ohio U Award

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—Junior quarterback Cleve Bryant of Canton received the Most Valuable Player Award during Ohio University's annual football banquet Sunday night.

Bryant, in leading the Bobcats to the Mid-American Conference championship with a 10-0 mark, set school career records for total offense and passing, and set a conference season mark with 2,268 yards.

Cardenas Traded For Jim Merritt

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds have acquired a badly needed left-handed starting pitcher—Jim Merritt of Minnesota—but they had to trade veteran shortstop Leo Cardenas.

"With the addition of Merritt, we now feel we definitely have the ingredients for a solid pennant contender," Bob Howsam, Cincinnati executive vice president and general manager, said of Saturday's deal.

CHS Jayvees Lose Tilt To Cavaliers

The Circleville reserve team trailed all the way Saturday in losing to the Chillicothe junior varsity, 75-58.

The visiting Cavaliers were leading 15-11 at the end of the first quarter, 37-23 at halftime and 61-37 when the fourth period began.

Rod Kasler scored 16 points to lead the Tiger effort, Chris Long had 12 points and Jim Morgan notched 10.

Dennis Jackson and Mike Webb scored six each, Bill McGowan, Rick Jacobs and Dave Ogan tallied two each.

The game's leading scorer was Dale Thompson of Chillicothe with 30 points.

Bengals Have Way To Go After Shutout By Raiders

By HAROLD HARRISON

CINCINNATI (AP)—It was with the greatest of ease that the Oakland Raiders created some congestion Sunday at the top of the Western Division of the American Football League.

Controlling the game all the way, they romped to a 34-0 victory over the Cincinnati Bengals before 27,116 fans and moved into a tie with the Kansas City Chiefs for first place in the division.

It was a little like the men playing the boys as the Raiders piled up 594 yards and set league record of 33 first downs while the Bengals could get only seven first downs and 160 yards.

But Coach Paul Brown took a philosophical attitude about the decisive defeat pinned on his expansion Bengals.

"I guess you saw how far we have to go," he said. "They outmanned us tremendously. They are just bigger, stronger, faster and quicker in all departments of the game."

"They played a lot better against us than they did out there."

The first game between the two clubs, at Oakland, ended in a 21-10 Raider victory.

Darley Lamonia completed 24 of 32 passes for 368 yards. He threw one touchdown pass and his tosses set up two others. George Blanda, relieving Lamonia late in the game, completed both passes he threw for 28 yards — one of them good for an Oakland touchdown.

And those passing performances brought some sharp comment from Bengals' defensive backfield coach Tom Bass.

Speaking of the pass defense, he said, "that was the worst ball reaction we've had. It was ridiculous. We weren't close at all."

Rookie Charlie Smith got two of the Raider touchdowns as he gained 118 yards in 16 carries. He scored in the opening quarter on a seven-yard dash after a 27-yard pass from Lamonia to Warren Wells helped set it up. He also scored in the final period from nine yards out. Two plays before that a 32-yard pass from Lamonia to Fred Biletnikoff had moved Oakland to the Bengal 11.

Lamonia hit Hewitt Dixon with a five-yard touchdown pass in the second period. Billy Cannon grabbed a Blanda toss for a 12-yard touchdown run in the final quarter.

So rugged was the Oakland defense that the Bengals never got inside the Oakland 20-yard line, although in the second quarter they had a pass from the 20 intercepted by Warren Powers on the Raider four-yard line.

Bullets Defeat Atlanta, 118-111; Take Lead Again

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Baltimore Bullets had a fine weekend, thank you. But then their whole season has been wonderful.

After adding two more victories to an already surprising won-loss record, the Bullets retook first place from Boston in the Eastern Division of the National Basketball Association.

Baltimore's 15th victory in 20 games was a 118-111 decision at Atlanta Sunday night with backcourt men Earl Monroe and Kevin Loughery teaming for 54 points as the Bullets increased their lead to one game over the idle Celtics.

Los Angeles increased its lead in the West despite Wilt Chamberlain's cold night by beating visiting Chicago 103-100 on Elgin Baylor's 35 points while host San Diego outlasted Philadelphia 135-128 in overtime and Seattle blasted Milwaukee 141-120 at Seattle.

Tigers Edged By Chillicothe, 63-59

Circleville was downed by Chillicothe, 63-59, Saturday, but not before the Tigers had given the Cavaliers more than they bargained for.

It was a far cry from last year when Chillicothe beat the Tigers, 106-48.

The Red and Black trailed almost the entire game, but did manage to pull ahead, 59-57, with 1:36 in the game. However, they succumbed to the superior height of Chillicothe in the closing minutes.

Chillicothe started a 6-6 center, Greg Juricisin. At one forward post the Cavaliers had 6-4 Jim Johnson. At the other forward berth was 6-3 Dave Stone.

CIRCLEVILLE'S program lists Dave Hopkins and Ty Ankrum both as being 6-feet 2-inches tall, but both looked a good three inches shorter than Stone.

It was a wild, exciting game from the opening tip to the final buzzer. Circleville's new scrambling run and shoot offense promises to give the Tiger fans a thrill a second, and its going to add more than one gray hair to the heads of opposing coaches both in and out of the league.

"I was proud of the boys tonight," new Coach Garold Sowders said after the game. "Last night I was worried. I think they were actually afraid of Chillicothe."

After Saturday's performance it's doubtful if the Tigers will be afraid of anybody. They are not likely to meet a team again this season with Chillicothe's overall size and strength, nor and added seven buckets from the foul line during the tilt for his game high total.

Senior guard Gene Carfrey chipped in 15 points and junior forward Bob Barnes scored 11. Other Mustangs breaking into the scoring column were Bob Oesterle with seven, Bill Blair and Tony Lightie with four each and Rick Maurer with two.

Westfall's basketball Mustangs defeated visiting Fairfield Union, 66-56, Saturday, behind the 23 point scoring effort of Greg Bigam.

The Mustangs held a comfortable lead throughout almost the entire game, and Coach Paul Hoskins substituted freely in the final quarter.

Bigam scored all eight of his field goals in the second half

For Fairfield Union, Wells McDonald scored 17 and Steve Sholl 13. Ten of Sholl's points came in the fourth quarter after Hoskins began substituting.

The Mustangs jumped out to a 22-9 lead in the first quarter. After halftime, they led, 33-16. In the third quarter, Westfall added 15 more points for a 48-33 score.

Westfall cagers hit 24 of 57 shots from the field, a 42 per cent average. At the charity stripe they connected on 18 of 25 attempts, a 72 per cent rate.

a team that can run as well as the Cavaliers did.

Chillicothe's Jack Berno scored the first point of the game nine seconds after the opening tip on a foul shot. The visitors led for the rest of the first period, although never more than by five points.

When the quarter ended, the score was 14-11. In the second quarter, Circleville was able to gain the lead when Dave Hopkins hit a jump shot from the top of the key to make the score 17-16. Hopkins came right back with a steal and drove in for a layup and Circleville was ahead by three.

CHILICOTHE and Circleville traded baskets until the final two minutes of the half when Chillicothe began to pull ahead again. By halftime, the Cavaliers had widened the margin to seven points, 32-25.

With 3:32 to go in the third quarter, Randy Halley was able to tie the score for Circleville, sinking a pair of charity tosses for a 37-41 game.

But Chillicothe chalked up seven straight points before the Tigers could get in gear again and the quarter ended with the visitors ahead, 48-43.

At the start of the fourth quarter, Ty Ankrum canned four straight foul shots and Halley netted a 25 foot jumper while the visitors were scoring one field goal to narrow the margin to 50-49.

Chillicothe scored four points to make the spread five. Dave Horst drove in to make the score 54-51, but again the Cavaliers were able to counter with a two point bucket to hold the five point lead.

Funny Fellow, Fast Hilarious Win Races

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

The weekend thoroughbred race program was a laughter. Not that the winners were any easier to pick. But what else do you call it with Funny Fellow winning the Gallant Fox at Aqueduct and Fast Hilarious taking the Alligator Stakes at Tropical Park.

And, too, there's that situation at Churchill Downs—the gal jockey affair—which may not be funny. But it's certainly unusual.

"They played a lot better against us than they did out there."

The first game between the two clubs, at Oakland, ended in a 31-10 Raider victory.

Darryle Lamonia completed 24 of 32 passes for 368 yards. He threw one touchdown pass and his tosses set up two others. George Blanda, relieving Lamonia late in the game, completed both passes he threw for 28 yards — one of them good for an Oakland touchdown.

And those passing performances brought some sharp comment from Bengals' defensive backfield coach Tom Bass.

Speaking of the pass defense, he said, "that was the worst ball reaction we've had. It was ridiculous. We weren't close at all."

Rookie Charlie Smith got two of the Raider touchdowns as he gained 118 yards in 16 carries. He scored in the opening quarter on a seven-yard dash after a 27-yard pass from Lamonia to Warren Wells helped set it up. He also scored in the final period from nine yards out. Two plays before that a 32-yard pass from Lamonia to Fred Biletnikoff had moved Oakland to the Bengal 11.

Lamonia hit Hewitt Dixon with a five-yard touchdown pass in the second period. Billy Cannon grabbed a Blanda toss for a 12-yard touchdown run in the final quarter.

So rugged was the Oakland defense that the Bengals never got inside the Oakland 20-yard line, although in the second quarter they had a pass from the 20 intercepted by Warren Powers on the Raider four-yard line.

Bullets Defeat Atlanta, 118-111; Take Lead Again

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Baltimore Bullets had a fine weekend, thank you. But then their whole season has been wonderful.

After adding two more victories to an already surprising win-loss record, the Bullets retook first place from Boston in the Eastern Division of the National Basketball Association.

Baltimore's 15th victory in 20 games was a 118-111 decision at Atlanta Sunday night with backcourt men Earl Monroe and Kevin Loughery teaming for 54 points as the Bullets increased their lead to one game over the idle Celtics.

Ohio U Defeats Northern Illinois; Eyes Bowl Game

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Ohio's two football powers will carry unblemished records into post-season bowl games. Ohio State won the Big Ten championship and capped a 9-0 season Saturday by trouncing Michigan 50-14. The win sends the Buckeyes to the New Year's Day Rose Bowl game against Southern California.

Mid-American Conference champion Ohio University finished the season with a perfect 10-0 record Saturday by defeating Northern Illinois, 28-12. The Bobcats meet Richmond, Southern Conference titlist, in the Tangerine Bowl at Orlando, Fla., Dec. 27.

Ohio University's undefeated, untied season was apersonal triumph for Coach Bill Hess who suffered through an 0-10 campaign in 1965.

Spearheading the attack for the 17th ranked Bobcats was fullback Bob Houmard, who fattened his OU scoring record with three touchdowns against Northern Illinois.

He earlier topped the three-year scoring mark of 140 points set by Bob Brooks in 1958-60. Houmard finished with 168.

In other action Saturday, Cincinnati overcame a two-touchdown deficit and edged Miami 23-21 on a 47-yard field goal with three seconds remaining to play.

All three Bearcat scores were on passes by Greg Cook, the nation's leader in total offense. Jim O'Brien booted the field goal, his 19th of the season. O'Brien also scored one of the TDs.

Bowling Green erupted for 34 points in the second half in downing Xavier 44-14. Falcon sophomore quarterback Vern Wireman pitched three touchdown passes in the third period.

Dayton halfback Bernie Kress set a school rushing mark as the Flyers dumped Temple, 35-17. Kress ended his college career with 1,662 total yards.

Findlay thumped Wilmington 33-6 as halfback Moe Jacobs ran for two touchdowns and quarterback Tim O'Malley passed for two more.

Bill Long caught three touchdown passes to set an Ohio Conference record as Ohio Wesleyan clobbered Denison 44-8. Long holds the record for most touchdown passes caught, 28, in a career.

Wittenberg kicker Fred Mitchell set a NCAA college division record for total points in Wittenberg's 45-7 rout over Wagner. Mitchell's five extra points and 37-yard field goal gave him a career total of 166 points.

On Friday night, Akron defeated Youngstown State 48-13 and stayed in the running for a bid to the Grantland Rice Bowl.

OSU Wins Roses, 50-14

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Who's No. 1 in the nation? Second-ranked Ohio State, 9-0, and Southern California, 9-0, and ranked No. 1, will decide that controversial subject New Year's Day on the gridiron—where it should be settled. But until college football's two giants collide in the Rose Bowl, Coach Woody Hayes is convinced his Buckeyes are better than Q. J. Simpson and his Trojan mates.

NL Reserve Quarterbacks In Spotlight

by DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Nobody seems to be immune to the crippled quarterback epidemic sweeping the National Football League this year. But three clubs are getting maximum protection from the first aid firm of Earl Morrall, Craig Morton and Zeke Bratkowski.

Morrall, who stepped into Johnny Unitas' pass pocket at the outset of the season when the Baltimore ace came up with a sore pitching arm, helped the Colts stampede the Minnesota Vikings 21-9 Sunday for their 10th victory in 11 starts.

Morton, filling in for ailing Dallas star Don Meredith, guided the Cowboys to a 34-3 romp over the injury-riddled Chicago Bears. Bratkowski, working in relief of sore-ribbed Bart Starr, led the Green Bay Packers past Washington 27-7 and into title contention.

The Colts remained one-half game ahead of the Los Angeles Rams, who nipped New York 24-21 on Bruce Gossett's field goal with four seconds to play, in the Coastal Division race. Dallas, 9-3, increased its Capitol lead over the second place Giants to two games, with three to play. And Green Bay, 5-5-1, climbed within one-half game of first place Minnesota in the Central scramble.

Bill Nelsen, another one-time backup quarterback, kept Cleveland's Century pace-setters rolling, teaming with running back Leroy Kelly to engineer a 47-13 rout of the winless Philadelphia Eagles.

St. Louis trimmed Atlanta 17-12 to stay 1 1/2 games behind the Browns; San Francisco drubbed Pittsburgh 45-28 and New Orleans fought Detroit to a 20-20 standoff.

Mike Tobin, Michigan State sophomore tackle from Detroit, is the son of George Tobin who played football at Notre Dame 22 years ago.

"I think we proved it out there," Hayes said Saturday after Ohio humiliated arch-rival Michigan 50-14 in the Big Ten championship fray before a record Ohio Stadium crowd of 85,371.

"We beat the No. 4 team in the country—a real good football team—and we beat them big," Hayes observed.

And no matter what happens in the Rose Bowl, the future for Hayes and Ohio State football certainly looks rosy.

The Bucks, who now own the nation's longest winning streak—13—started 13 sophomores against the Wolverines. And fullback Jim Otis, who plunged ed for four touchdowns and 143 rushing yards to spark the romp, is only a junior.

Hayes gets his speedy, multi-talented backfield intact next season and loses only one player from a strong defensive unit. There's depth and talent at most positions and Ohio could be destined to duplicate its first perfect season since 1954.

Mike Yates Makes Culver Cage Squad

Mike Yates, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Yates, 126 East Mound Street, is a prospect for guard on Culver Military Academy's basketball team.

Yates, a 5-10 junior transfer student is expected to see a lot of action this year according to Thomas Baker head coach for the Eagles. Baker expects a good season for his inexperienced team.

The Eagles opened their season Friday night with an away game.

The Buckeyes crashed Michigan's defense for 421 yards rushing with soph Larry Zelina handling the outside slants, Otis the power game up the middle and quarterback Rex Kern assuming the Mr. In-between role with his running and passing.

Otis' four TD's gave him 16 touchdowns and 96 points, new school standards for the season.

And Hayes felt the Bucks did a good job stopping Michigan's Ron Johnson, who gained 91 yards and scored both Wolverine touchdowns to set two more Big Ten records. But Johnson got only 19 yards in the second half, as Michigan, forced to play catchup football, went to an air game.

Dick Lan Winner In Riverside Race

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP) — Dick Lan of Xenia, Ohio, took first place in the A sedan Class of the Fifth Annual American Road Racing Championships at Riverside Raceway Saturday.

Driving a Camaro, Lan had a top average speed of 95.274 miles an hour over a 49.48-mile course.

TRJAN WAR-HORSE—That's O. J. Simpson, the All-American back who is expected to win the Heisman Award this year. Simpson has led the Trojans to another big season and into the Rose Bowl. O.J. has piled up 1,449 yards rushing and has scored 18 touchdowns with the Trojans having UCLA and Notre Dame still to play.

Kelly Helps Browns Bomb Eagles, 47-13

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — It took Leroy Kelly three years but he finally made it. He completed a pass.

"I was waiting for my first completion," the National Football League's leading rusher said Sunday after the Cleveland Browns buried Philadelphia, 47-13.

"I was watching a college game on television Saturday and I saw a halfback complete a pass. I asked myself 'why can't I do that?'"

His first strike was a big one—a 34-yard touchdown to Paul Warfield in the second quarter that gave the Browns breathing room against the Eagles, who were within striking distance at the time. They trailed 10-6.

Warfield said he and Kelly talked about it. "I just told him that once I cleared the defensive backs, throw it out there," Warfield said. "Keep it on my left and I'll get it."

Warfield, who also had a 12-yard touchdown pass from Bill Nelsen, beat the Eagles' defenders and took the pass in the end zone—on his left.

Nelsen said he thought Kelly "was going to crank up and throw it out of the ball park."

Kelly didn't say much about his rushing. When he did it was praise for the blockers. Kelly gained 108 yards against Philadelphia and it put him over 1,000 yards for the third straight season.

He scored from the one and swept the right side for 36 yards and another TD in the third quarter to put the game out of reach. Reece Morrison also scored on a one-yard plunge and took a 29-yard pass from Frank Ryan in the fourth quarter when Coach Blanton Collier put his second string backfield to work.

TRIO WAR-HORSE—That's O. J. Simpson, the All-American back who is expected to win the Heisman Award this year. Simpson has led the Trojans to another big season and into the Rose Bowl. IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF PICKAWAY COUNTY, OHIO
Mary McCown, Administratrix of the Estate of Hazel Davis, deceased, Plaintiff, vs.
Mary McCown, et al., Defendants.
PROBATE COURT DIVISION
NO. 2345
LEGAL NOTICE BY PUBLICATION
Ann DeLong, whose address is 5960 Northwest 18th Court, Fort Lauderdale, Florida and Harry D. McKittrick whose address is RA 1963923 Box 118 HQ Btry 6th Bn 55 Arly, A.F.O. 96491 SK, will take notice that plaintiff filed the last day of November, 1968, her petition alleging that the personal estate of said decedent is not sufficient to pay her debts and the charges of administering her estate; that she died seized in fee simple of the following described real estate situated in the County of Pickaway, in the State of Ohio, and in the City of Circleville and described as follows:
BEING A STRIP OF LAND FORTY FEET IN WIDTH OFF OF THE WEST SIDE OF THE TRACT OF LAND, TO-WIT: Being a part of Lot Number 1780 in J. R. Baumes First Addition to the City of Circleville, Ohio. Beginning near a post in the south line of Hayward Avenue and at the northeast corner of said Lot Number 1780. Thence with the west line of an alley in a southerly direction 104 feet to an iron rail (planted in the ground) the northeast corner of a tract of land owned by the N & W Railroad. Thence with their line in a westerly direction a distance of about 75 feet to a point a corner to a lot owned by Samuel North. Thence with his east line in a northerly direction a distance of 104 feet to a point in the south line of Hayward Avenue. Thence with the south line of Hayward Avenue to the place of beginning. Containing 7884 Sq. ft. of land more or less. The property herein described is a strip of land 40 feet in width off the west side of said 75 foot wide tract and running the full 104 feet north and south depth of said 75 foot side tract.
The prayer of said petition is for sale of said real estate for the payment of debts and charges.
The persons above mentioned will further take notice that they have been made party defendants to said petition and that they are required to answer the same on or before the 4th day of January, 1969.

College Teams Fight Down To Wire

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Ohio State has its berth in the Rose Bowl against Southern California, but the question is, will the Buckeyes be playing the first, second or even third ranked team in the country?

Notre Dame might have the answer.
The Irish get last crack—before Ohio State—at Southern Cal when they square off Saturday in the Los Angeles Coliseum before a national television audience, and you can bet 10th-ranked Notre Dame will have plenty to say on this ranking matter.

USC, 9-0, apparently will enter the game still top-ranked after beating down stubborn cross-town rival UCLA 28-16 while Ohio State, 9-0, completed its regular season with a rousing and surprising 50-14 over Michigan in the struggle for the Big Ten title and the bowl bid.

Should USC beat Notre Dame, it probably would keep its top billing, but should the Trojans lose, they could drop to second and even third behind Penn

State, while Ohio State takes the top spot.

Penn State, No. 3 at 9-0, with a Dec. 7 battle against Syracuse still waiting, overwhelmed Pittsburgh 65-9.

But these aren't the only questions still lacking answers as the regular college football season draws to a close. The Cotton and Sugar bowls are still in the dark on their second teams—Texas or Arkansas.

Arkansas put in its final bid for the Southwest Conference championship and the automatic spot in the Cotton by walloping Texas Tech 42-7 in its finale. Texas gets its final say against rival Texas A&M on television Thanksgiving Day Thursday.

Arkansas is 6-1 in the conference, Texas 5-1, and a victory over the Aggies would give Texas a conference tie and the Cotton Bowl on the strength of its victory earlier over Arkansas. Arkansas would then wind up in the Sugar, a Texas loss would put the Longhorns in the Sugar.

And then there is still the question of rankings.

Michigan, No. 4, is certain to drop, but the other Top Ten members in action last Saturday, Kansas and Tennessee, came through with victories. Kansas, No. 7 and Orange Bowl bound against Penn State, clinched at least a tie for the Big Eight crown with a 21-19 squeaker over Missouri, No. 13, while Tennessee, No. 8 and headed for the Cotton Bowl, breezed past Kentucky 24-7. The Vols play Vanderbilt Saturday.

Georgia, No. 5, which finishes against Georgia Tech Saturday, was idle with Texas and Notre Dame.

Houston, No. 11, raised its stock by raising the score, pouring it on down-trodden Tulsa 100-6, a score so high the NCAA computer would not accept it.

Houston, 6-1-2, has a bigger test Saturday night at Jacksonville, Fla., against Florida State, 7-2, which is bound for the Peach Bowl after Ron Sellers caught five touchdown passes in a 42-24 victory over Wake Forest.

Virginia Tech, 6-3, although idle before finishing against VMI Thursday, accepted a bid to the Liberty Bowl against Mississippi while Wyoming, No. 20, lost its chance of any invitation by losing to Arizona 14-7.

Elsewhere in the Top Twenty, Purdue, No. 12, beat Indiana 38-35 as Leroy Keyes ended his collegiate career with four touchdowns; Oklahoma, No. 14, all but won a share of the Big Eight title by crushing Nebraska 47-0 as Steve Owens scored five times and Oregon State, No. 16, dropped Oregon 41-19.

Ohio University, No. 17, finished an unbeaten season with a 28-12 victory over Northern Illinois, and California, No. 18, lost to Stanford, 20-0.

Alabama, No. 15, and Auburn, No. 19, which meet Saturday, were idle.

Oklahoma still needs a victory over Oklahoma State Saturday to tie for Kansas.

In a battle for the Ivy League title, unbeaten Yale and Harvard struggled to a thrilling 29-29 tie when Harvard scored 16 points in the last 42 seconds on two touchdowns and two two-point conversions, the last after time had run out.

Black Hawks Win, 6-4

By HAL BOCK

The hottest goaltender in the National Hockey League is Chicago's Dave Dryden, who has burned Minnesota twice in less than a week.

Handed the Hawks' No. 1 goalie job two weeks ago, Dryden has allowed just one goal in the last three games, shutting out Minnesota twice. The latest was a 6-0 whitewashing which the Black Hawks hung on the North Stars Sunday night.

In other Sunday night games, New York edged Oakland 3-2, Boston bombed Toronto 7-4 and Los Angeles trimmed Philadelphia 3-1.

In Saturday night's games, Boston ripped New York 5-1, Montreal topped Minnesota 4-3, Detroit dropped Toronto 5-2, Oakland edged Philadelphia 2-1, St. Louis shut out Chicago 1-0 and Los Angeles played Pittsburgh to a 2-2 standoff.

Jets Handle Hadl, 37-15

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
The New York Jets might have had their troubles against Heidi, but it was a different story against Hadl.

The Jets, blacked out a week ago in the last minute when NBC replaced them with Heidi and Oakland followed with two game-winning touchdowns, returned to the air Sunday with a new ending, a 37-15 victory over the San Diego Chargers in the American Football League.

The tale was told by hero Joe

Namath, who completed 17 of 31 passes for 337 yards and two New York touchdowns, and by goat, John Hadl, who managed only 6 for 19 for 35 yards and three interceptions in the first half for San Diego.

"This is the worst football game I've ever played in my life," muttered a disgusted Hadl, whose Chargers dropped to third place behind Oakland and Kansas City in the Western Division.

"I know how John feels," said Namath, whose Jets clinched at least a tie for the Eastern Division title. "I've been there before."

Oakland gained a tie at 9-2 by moving easily past Cincinnati 34-0 while Kansas City was idle. San Diego is 8-3.

In other games Denver beat Buffalo 34-32 in a furious finish and Miami clouted Boston 34-10.

The Jets, three games ahead of idle Houston with three to play, didn't even need the last minute, getting right into the plot as Namath and Don Maynard teamed for an 87-yard scoring play and Jim Turner kicked a field goal for a 10-0 first period lead. Turner's kick was his 29 of the season, a pro football record, to which he added two more field goals before the story ended.

By halftime it was 27-7 with San Diego only able to break through on Speedy Duncan's AFL-record 95-yard punt return. It wasn't until the score had reached 37-7 that Hadl hit on a touchdown pass and two-point conversion. By then Maynard had caught six passes for 166 yards and George Sauer, the league's leading receiver, five for 124 yards, putting both over the 1,000 yard mark.

Doctor O.K.'s This Hemorrhoid Treatment For N.J. Couple's Son

Treatment Shrinks Piles, Relieves Pain In Most Cases
Wharton, N.J. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jeffers report: "Our son suffered from hemorrhoids. I asked the doctor about Preparation H and he gave us the O.K. Our son is now fine, thanks to Preparation H!"
(Note: Doctors have proved in most cases—Preparation H actually shrinks inflamed hemorrhoids. In case after case, the sufferer first notices prompt relief from pain, burning and itching. Then swelling is gently reduced. There's no other formula for the treatment of hemorrhoids like doctor-tested Preparation H. It also lubricates to make bowel movements more comfortable, soothes irritated tissues and helps prevent further infection. In ointment or suppository form.)

College Teams Fight Down To Wire

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Ohio State has its berth in the Rose Bowl against Southern California, but the question is, will the Buckeyes be playing the first, second or even third ranked team in the country?
Notre Dame might have the answer.
The Irish get last crack—before Ohio State—at Southern Cal when they square off Saturday in the Los Angeles Coliseum before a national television audience, and you can bet 10th-ranked Notre Dame will have plenty to say on this ranking matter.
USC, 9-0, apparently will enter the game still top-ranked after beating down stubborn cross-town rival UCLA 28-16 while Ohio State, 9-0, completed its regular season with a rousing and surprising 50-14 over Michigan in the struggle for the Big Ten title and the bowl bid.
Should USC beat Notre Dame, it probably would keep its top billing, but should the Trojans lose, they could drop to second and even third behind Penn

State, while Ohio State takes the top spot.
Penn State, No. 3 at 9-0, with a Dec. 7 battle against Syracuse still waiting, overwhelmed Pittsburgh 63-9.
But these aren't the only questions still lacking answers as the regular college football season draws to a close. The Cotton and Sugar bowls are still in the dark on their second teams—Texas or Arkansas.
Arkansas put in its final bid for the Southwest Conference championship and the automatic spot in the Cotton by walloping Texas Tech 42-7 in its finale. Texas gets its final say against rival Texas A&M on television Thanksgiving Day Thursday.
Arkansas is 6-1 in the conference, Texas 5-1, and a victory over the Aggies would give Texas a conference tie and the Cotton Bowl on the strength of its victory earlier over Arkansas. Arkansas would then wind up in the Sugar. A Texas loss would put the Longhorns in the Sugar.
And then there is still the question of rankings.
Michigan, No. 4, is certain to drop, but the other Top Ten members in action last Saturday, Kansas and Tennessee, came through with victories. Kansas, No. 7 and Orange Bowl bound against Penn State, clinched at least a tie for the Big Eight crown with a 21-19 squeaker over Missouri, No. 13, while Tennessee, No. 8 and headed for the Cotton Bowl, breezed past Kentucky 24-7. The Vols play Vanderbilt Saturday.

Georgia, No. 5, which finishes against Georgia Tech Saturday, was idle with Texas and Notre Dame.
Houston, No. 11, raised its stock by raising the score, pouring it on downtrodden Tulsa 100-6, a score so high the NCAA computer would not accept it.
Houston, 6-1-2, has a bigger test Saturday night at Jacksonville, Fla., against Florida State, 7-2, which is bound for the Peach Bowl after Ron Sellers caught five touchdown passes in a 42-24 victory over Wake Forest.
Virginia Tech, 6-3, although idle before finishing against VMI Thursday, accepted a bid to the Liberty Bowl against Mississippi while Wyoming, No. 20, lost its chance of any invitation by losing to Arizona 14-7.

Elsewhere in the Top Twenty, Purdue, No. 12, beat Indiana 38-35 as Leroy Keyes ended his collegiate career with four touchdowns; Oklahoma, No. 14, all but won a share of the Big Eight title by crushing Nebraska 47-0 as Steve Owens scored five times and Oregon State, No. 16, dropped Oregon 41-19.
Ohio University, No. 17, finished an unbeaten season with a 28-12 victory over Northern Illinois, and California, No. 18, lost to Stanford, 20-0.
Alabama, No. 15, and Auburn, No. 19, which meet Saturday, were idle.
Oklahoma still needs a victory over Oklahoma State Saturday to tie Kansas.
In a battle for the Ivy League title, unbeaten Yale and Harvard struggled to a thrilling 29-29 tie when Harvard scored 16 points in the last 42 seconds on two touchdowns and two two-point conversions, the last after time had run out.

2 Jetliners Hijacked To Cuba In 18 Hours

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Two plane-loads of travelers, forced to Cuba at gunpoint by separate teams of hijackers, returned to the United States with strikingly similar stories of the latest acts of air piracy.

A Pan American Airways jet commandeered by three gunmen over the Atlantic Ocean after leaving New York for San Juan, P.R., landed in Havana Sunday minutes after the first hijack victims of the weekend were flown to freedom.

An Eastern airliner en route to Miami from Chicago was taken over Saturday night by a team of five men who forced their way into the cockpit at gunpoint, then stood their victims a round of drinks.

The 78 Eastern passengers were returned to the United States in a plane chartered by the U.S. State Department. Cuban authorities released the stolen jetliners and crews a few hours later.

The same charter plane was dispatched back to the Communist island and retrieved the Pan American passengers early today.

Both captains said they learned their crafts had been hijacked when gun-waving men entered the cockpits shouting identical orders — "Cuba! Cuba! Cuba!" Pan American Capt. Alvin Walker said, "It didn't take us long to decide. I told him, 'Don't shoot. Sit down. We go to Cuba.'"

Eastern pilot Robert Silver said that when his abductor pointed a pistol and ordered the new destination, "I looked at him and smiled and said 'That's no problem. We're on the way.'"

After initial tensions eased, passengers on both planes reported their kidnappings took on an almost restive atmosphere.

Eastern stewardess Nancy Corson said one of the hijackers gave her $20 and insisted that she serve the passengers a round of drinks.

When served, passenger David Ruxton of Chicago said he was told the drink was on "the gentleman in the back with the gun."

Honeymooners Joseph and Ellen Hunoval of South Orange, N.J., said the apparent leader of the Pan American hijackers sat with them for awhile and described him as congenial.

Mrs. Hunoval, 24, told him that he was interrupting the first day of the couple's honeymoon "and he said he was very sympathetic" and "very sorry to inconvenience us."

Long Island Railroad Hit By Walkout Of Trainmen

NEW YORK (AP) — The Long Island Rail Road, the usual mode of travel for 90,000 commuters between Long Island homes and New York jobs, was halted today when trainmen failed to show up for work in a scheduled dispute.

Commuters generally took to their cars to reach the city, creating miles-long traffic jams and cramming city subways at points on the outskirts.

Police reported a six-mile citybound backup on the Grand Central Parkway beginning at the site of the World's Fair grounds. Other highways also were unusually congested.

The railroad instituted a revised schedule at a minute after midnight this morning. No trains moved after that time.

The railroad said the stoppage was an illegal strike.

The 1,600-member Local 517 of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen said the schedule change, the first major revision by the line in 20 years, would cut down drastically on overtime pay.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — House Republicans caucus here today to select leadership in the 108th Ohio General Assembly.

Key going on the line is that of House speaker, and Rep. Charles F. Kurfess of Bowling Green was expected to be re-named to a second term.

Among other leadership positions up for grabs were that of majority floor leader, speaker pro-tem and GOP whip.

Also to be named was a new House clerk, replacing Carl Guess, who is resigning.

Long Island Railroad Hit By Walkout Of Trainmen

NEW YORK (AP) — The Long Island Rail Road, the usual mode of travel for 90,000 commuters between Long Island homes and New York jobs, was halted today when trainmen failed to show up for work in a scheduled dispute.

Commuters generally took to their cars to reach the city, creating miles-long traffic jams and crumpling city subways at points on the outskirts.

Police reported a six-mile citybound backup on the Grand Central Parkway beginning at the site of the World's Fair grounds. Other highways also were unusually congested.

The railroad instituted a revised schedule at a minute after midnight this morning. No trains moved after that time.

The railroad said the stoppage was an illegal strike.

The 1,600-member Local 517 of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen said the schedule change, the first major revision by the line in 20 years, would cut down drastically on overtime pay.

Ohio Republicans

Choose Leaders

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — House Republicans caucus here today to select leadership in the 108th Ohio General Assembly.

Key job going on the line is that of House speaker, and Rep. Charles F. Kurfess of Bowling Green was expected to be re-named to a second term.

Among other leadership positions up for grabs were that of majority floor leader, speaker pro-tem and GOP whip.

Also to be named was a new House clerk, replacing Carl Guess, who is resigning.

The Long Island, the nation's largest commuter line, also carries about 80,000 one-way fares daily.

"This illegal action is in direct defiance of a restraining order granted last Friday by Federal Judge Walter Bruchhausen, the line's spokesman said.

Harold J. Pryor, general chairman of the union local, said Sunday that the schedule changes were made without proper consultation with the union, but that he ordered his men to obey the court order, returnable Dec. 2.

A railroad spokesman replied that rules requiring 25 days notice in advance of a schedule change had been carried out. He said the union was informed Oct. 25, adding: "A new timetable is not bargainable. Nobody is losing their job."

Boycott Urged Against A&P In Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The Rev. A. D. King, brother of slain civilrights leader, the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., urged Sunday that A & P stores in Cleveland be boycotted.

The Rev. Mr. King told a meeting of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) here that only one of 50 A & P stores in Cleveland has a Negro manager.
